

Scout's BackPorch

Scout's BackPorch is a Southern Restaurant

- Homey, hospitality
- Southern pictures
- Not hillbilly, and not super fancy
- Moderately priced
- Looks like a back porch- Wood floors
- Out back a dog park and kid's playground
- Opens at 6 am
- Saturday- New Orleans Style Gumbo
- Sunday- Fried Chicken with all the fixings
- BBQ, Fish, Fried foods

Layout- Homey

- 1- I like the red brick
- 2- I love that fireplace
- 3- I like the chalkboard
- 4- I like the element of outdoors
- 5- I love the tables and brickwork

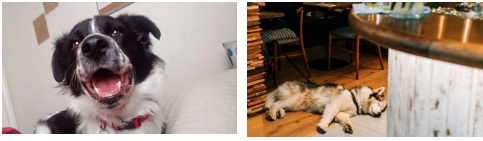

Layout- Outdoor Dog Park

I really like the idea of an area you can eat and chill with your dog. For many of us they are like our children, and the idea of a dog park connected to a bar appeals to me

Adoptable Dogs there

The first picture is my dog Scout. The 2nd, 4th, and 5th all show dogs allowed inside. Dogs should be allowed because they are honestly cleaner than children in my opinion. I want an actual porch in the front, kind of like Cracker Barrel, but lighter colors. Ideally there would be a separate part to show adoptable dogs, but if not they would sponsor adoption events a couple times a month.

Country food

Homey type food, pot roast on Sundays

Artwork- Rustic
