28	29	30	Because you weren't meant to do this alone. When your child is struggling, the weight can feel isolating — like no one quite gets what you're carrying. But in a peer support group, you're surrounded by people who do get it. People who have sat in hospital waiting rooms, had IEP meetings go sideways, and navigated sleepless nights filled with fear and love. What can you expect at a meeting? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding without judgment – No need to explain the "why." We get it. • Connection with others who truly relate – You're not the only one. • Shared ideas & real-world tools – What worked for someone else might help you. • Emotional breathing room – A space to vent, cry, laugh, and exhale. • Hope – Not the perfect-picture kind, but the honest, hard-earned kind
