

WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS 08/24-08/30

August 27 (Wednesday) Club Meeting

This week's speaker will feature Chelsea Robbins the Director of Operations for the Catholic Charities of Central and Northern Missouri. She will explain how they provide care and create hope by responding to the needs of people in 38 counties regardless of faith, culture or situation. They provide compassionate, holistic care through programs designed to uplift and empower our most vulnerable neighbors while living our faith in relationship with all of God's creation!

HELP WANTED!!!

Mokane Lions need people to cover a couple of shifts at the Mokane World's Fair:

Friday August 29, 8-PM to close.

Saturday August 30, 2 PM to 6 PM

Both shifts involve cooking and serving food. The location is at the fairgrounds in Mokane. If interested, please contact Lion Cameron Hall at 309-506-6200.

September 3 (Wednesday) Club Meeting

Our speaker for this meeting will be Roe Duke, Aging Best (Senior Centers). Aging Best partners with several senior centers and nutritional programs in 19 counties throughout Central Missouri. Nutrition Activity Centers offer delicious hot meals Monday through Friday, activities and educational opportunities. Aging Best delivers meals to frail persons in over 100 communities in Central Missouri. In addition, they offer a variety of support services relating to elder care. The Aging Best Outreach Team; Roe, Olivia and Patty will be with us to uplift and inform. Please join your fellow Lions for a meaningful program and renew friendships and your passion to serve!
