

From Montana to Nashville's comedy hub, Marty Quinn brings a no-nonsense comedic style with uproarious tales of family life to the stage. As a devoted, yet bewildered husband and father, his humor resonates with audiences across the country.

Marty's first made waves in the world of comedy when he was cast in Bill Engvall's break through video "Here's Your Sign" and national commercials like Zebco's Glow-In-The-Dark fishing rods.

Often referred to as a comic sage, Marty has graced venues such as Third Coast Comedy Club, Don's House of Comedy, Carrollton Station, and Comedy Caravan. Marty's comedic journey is a joyride through the everyday absurdities we all share. Catch Marty live for an evening of laughs, love, and relatable truths about marriage and parenthood!
