

Guidon Security Consulting Opens Their Door For Business!

Phoenix security company launches to help improve security management

PHOENIX - Oct. 7, 2019 - PRLog -- Guidon Security Consulting announces the launch of business! Bridging the gap in security needs in the Phoenix metropolitan area, the security consulting firm was created to help industry professionals and consumers alike with full spectrum security needs.

The CEO and President of Guidon, Anthony J. Rumore, says, "Experience guides us, solutions define us. We are striving to be the go-to in security management for a variety of industries around the Phoenix land." After retiring from the military followed by spending nearly 15 years climbing the security corporate ladder, he noticed a heightened need for personalized security consulting that reaches beyond what typical security companies offer. His professional experience intertwined with his military background offers an authentic and no-nonsense approach to extremely diligent security. His resume showcases his ability to rebuild security offices, exponentially increase sales, lead business development ventures, and create corporate structure and protocols.

Guidon Security in Phoenix offers consulting services to both security firms and companies needing security in the Phoenix metropolitan area. If a company needs a security plan, looking to hire a security firm, or needs a security evaluation, Guidon is the place to help. If a security firm is looking for any assistance or improvements, Guidon is the place to help.

For Real Estate Professionals -

We take your security objectives plus budget and create a security program with a completely unbiased opinion. In addition, we know first-hand the strict time constraints amongst property managers, community managers and portfolio managers. Therefore, Guidon has created a service to manage security RFP's. We individually evaluate each community or property to provide the appropriate security programs and applications. We also take the guess work out of creating RFP's by generating for you and then we solicit the proposal amongst the highest rated firms in the area. Guidon can then manage the security partnership for the life of the contract.

For Security Companies-

Guidon has been immersed in the Phoenix security industry for over 15 years. We have the know-how to give your sales department a thorough evaluation and improvement plan, as well as offer part-time business development opportunities.
