

Subject line– Recognizing Anacostia Youth

Hello Jay,

My name is Dina Negash and I work for the Anacostia Youth Media Festival!

I've been following your coverage of DMV education at the Washington Post for a while now and I've always appreciated your work on education in DC

The Anacostia Youth Media Festival will be the first youth-directed festival in the DC area organized and held in the Anacostia Neighborhood of Washington, DC. The two-day event will feature a DC Youth Media competition screening and a partner event with the Minneapolis Saint Paul Film Society's Next Wave Education Initiative. This spring the media festival will launch for the first time and it will be a two-day event on the weekend of May 19 and 20, 2023.

With your past coverage with youth organizations in the district, we thought you might be interested in covering our festival.

Look forward to hearing from you soon.

Warm regards,

Dina Negash
