THE #1 JAZZ SONG ON THE NATIONAL CHARTS

IT'S ALL OVER NOW, BABY BLUE

The latest single from The Andy Rothstein Band, an instrumental jazz fusion interpretation of the Bob Dylan classic "It's All Over Now, Baby Blue," has held the #1 position on the Roots Music Report's Top 50 Jazz Song Chart since June 2025.

This marks the latest in a series of national charting successes for the New Jersey-based jazz-rock ensemble. Blending rock energy with jazz complexity, the band has created a sound that is resonating on radio airwaves across the country.

BIOGRAPHY

HIGHLIGHTS

- #1 Jazz Song on the National Roots Music Report Chart (June 2025 - Present)
- #1 Top Fusion Album of the Year on the RMR Chart (2022)
- Band features an all-star lineup with members who have performed with Nile Rodgers & Chic, Chicago, Blood, Sweat & Tears, and Smokey Robinson.

Blend the energy of rock with the complexity of jazz and the dynamics of blues and you just might end up with a unique style. New Jersey based guitarist Andy Rothstein's unique musical voice can be attributed partly to his diverse musical influences, and partly to the various electronic modifications that he has developed for guitars.

Andy first began playing guitar at age 14. He graduated from Rutgers University, majoring in music and computer science, and he studied privately with Kevin Eubanks, Ted Dunbar, Steve Khan and Vinnie Zummo.

Andy has released 3 highly acclaimed recordings as a leader. His most recent release Truth Against the World (2022) spent over a year on the Roots Music Report Jazz charts, finishing #1 in the Top Fusion Album Chart for 2022.

On Truth Against the World, Andy teamed up with an all-star cast of musicians including bassist Tony Senatore (Rook, Genya Raven), Trumpeter Steve Jankowski (Nile Rodgers & Chic, Chicago, Blood, Sweat & Tears), Drummer Tom Cottone (Randy Brecker, One More Once, Glen Burtnik) Saxophonist Kenny Gioffre (Smokey Robinson, Blood Sweat & Tears), Vocalist Audrey Martells (Nile Rodgers & Chic) and Keyboardist D Pappas (Smokey Robinson).
