Six nights of accommodation will be provided. A full daily breakfast is included. If you plan on arriving early or extending your stay at the host hotel, please see below.

Fees, Tickets, & Group Meals

Admission to all venues, instruction sessions, tours, and meals listed on the itinerary is included. All other meals are the responsibility of the individual. We HIGHLY recommend making dinner reservations well in advance if you want to try something/somewhere specific.

Travel Insurance

Travel insurance is not included in the cost of the tour. You are strongly advised to arrange this cover at the time of paying your deposit to protect you against loss of deposit and/or final payment; injury, medical expenses, loss of baggage and personal effects etc. Trip cancellation insurance is strongly advised; medical insurance is required.

Passports & Visa

Passport and appropriate re-entry visas according to government requirements at the time of travel are required. All pre-travel documentation is the passenger's responsibility. It should be finalized two months before departure. For the purposes of a short trip (less than 90 days), valid passports are required from every country for entry into France. Visas are not required for visitors from the United States and several other countries. Please note your United States passport must be valid and NOT EXPIRE prior to six months after your return to the US from France.

The European Travel Information and Authorization System (ETIAS) launched in May 2025. If you're traveling to countries in the European Union, you'll need to apply for ETIAS approval before boarding your flight. The application costs about $7 and can be completed online. Once approved, your ETIAS authorization is valid for three years or until your passport expires. It covers multiple trips to participating countries, as long as you're not staying longer than 90 days within a 180-day period.

Application requirements are:

- Valid passport with at least six months remaining before it expires
- Personal information, including name, address, phone number, and email
- Travel plans, such as intended destination and date of arrival
- Credit or debit card to pay the application fee

It is the traveler's responsibility to apply and purchase the authorization prior to departure. You can apply on the official website.
