Evaluating, Diagnosing, and Treating ADHD

FOR THERAPISTS & MENTAL HEALTH PRACTICES.

"Evaluating, Diagnosing, & Treating ADHD" is my main class that I teach to therapists at mental health practices & agencies. This class will equip your therapists to immediately be able to evaluate clients for ADHD so that you do not have to refer them out, disrupting their care AND earning your organization more income!

This class can be taught in it's full 2-4 hour format originally designed and has also been modified for 30 and 60 minute segments. Perfect for a lunch & learn OR a full half day training!

WORKSHOP

Get Unstuck & Get Started In Three Simple Steps!

FOR OVERTHINKING, SELF-DOUBTING EMPLOYEES OR STUDENTS!

This energizing and practical talk introduces a simple 3-step strategy to help people break out of overthinking, shift their mindset, and take immediate action—whether it's at work, at home, or in their head. Grounded in the PAM Method (Pause, Aloud, Move), this session gives your team a reset button they can use anytime to boost focus, change their mood, and move forward with confidence. Perfect for corporate teams, blue-collar crews, educators, and helping professionals alike, this talk blends motivation with actionable tools that stick.

This session can be delivered in one hour or customized into a 20–30 minute keynote. Available in professional or uncensored formats to match the tone of your event.

Elevate Your Online Content!

FOR SERVICE-BASED ORGANIZATIONS

"Elevate Your Online Content" is my talk perfect for therapy practices, consulting firms, or any other service-based organization that has GREAT services but needs facelift on their online footprint and wants an increase in client leads. This talk will help your team improve your online prescience and can help double your current inquiry leads. This talk will be ALL the things I learned about social media growth, website layout, and search engine optimization to become a top specialist in my field and expand to a team of 10+ therapists..

This class can be a 2-4 hour intensive workshop, or can be modified for a 30 to 60 minute lecture. It can also be a full 8 hour day, including a 30 minute break, that will be more interactive and can be more personalized to help with content planning for your team. "Elevate Your Online Content" can also be a 6-12 session individual or team consulting package which can offer the most personalized experience possible!
