Come Follow Me ~ Genesis 12-17

This week in Come Follow Me — Old Testament Study (Genesis 12-17; Abraham 1-2), we journey w Abram and his family from his birthplace Ur (pictured above in Sumerian language—Ur-im) one of the oldest cities in the world built by the Sumerians and conquered by the Akkadians. Abram and his family would have been caught up in this turmoil and God in His wisdom commands Abram and his family to leave the great city and probably head up the Euphrates River north to the land of Aram where they settle in a town named after Abram's brother Haran. Abram probably would have learned many languages on the way including Sumerian (the oldest written language), Akkadian, Aramaic, and Hebrew (named after his ancestor Eber). Abram and Sarai and their caravan will continue their journey south to the Land of the Canaanites where many revelations and adventures await them. Stay tuned...
