Your privacy is important to us. Read the following privacy policy.

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from various sources, including:

* Interviews regarding your tax situation

* Applications, organizers, or other documents that supply such information as your name, address, telephone number, Social Security Number, number of dependents, income, and other tax-related data

* Tax-related documents you provide that are required for processing tax returns, such as Forms W-2, 1099R, 1099-INT and 1099-DIV, and stock transactions

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our clients or former clients to anyone, except as requested by our clients or as required by law.

We restrict access to personal information concerning you, except to our employees who need such information in order to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your personal information.

Subject: Preparation of Your 2021 Tax Returns

Thank you for choosing Mote CPA PC to assist you with your 2021 taxes. This letter confirms the terms of our engagement with you and outlines the nature and extent of the services we will provide. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we ask all clients for whom returns are prepared to confirm the following arrangements. A copy of this letter is provided to you in our office, on our website www.MoteCPA.com and with your completed tax return. We will prepare your 2021 federal and requested state income tax returns from information that you will furnish us. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although it may be necessary to request clarification of some of the information.

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. To be deductible, a business expense must be both ordinary and necessary. An ordinary expense is one that is common and accepted in your trade or business. A necessary expense is one that is helpful and appropriate for your trade or business. You cannot deduct personal, living, or family expenses as a business expense. However, if you have an expense for something that is used partly for business and partly for personal purposes, divide the total cost between the business and personal parts. You can deduct only the business part. It is your responsibility to remove personal, living and family expenses from the business expenses you provide to us. You should retain all the documents, canceled checks and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. Documentation is required for all deductions. We are not responsible for the disallowance of doubtful deductions or inadequately supported documentation, nor for resulting taxes, penalties and interest. It is our policy to keep records related to this engagement for 3 years. Mote CPA does not keep any original client records, so we will return those to you at the completion of the services rendered under this engagement. By your acceptance below, you acknowledge and agree that upon the expiration of the 3 year period, Mote CPA shall be free to destroy our records related to this engagement.

You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should carefully review them before you sign and file them. After you have reviewed the returns, you must provide us with a signed authorization indicating that you have reviewed the return and that, to the best of your knowledge, you feel it is correct. Married filing joint tax returns must be signed by both spouses. You may not sign for your spouse without a power of attorney. We cannot transmit the returns to the taxing authorities until we have the signed authorization.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. We will use professional judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we will resolve such questions in your favor whenever possible.

The filing deadline for federal individual (form 1040) and corporate (form 1120) tax returns is April 15th, (March 15th for partnerships (form 1065) and S corporations (form 1120-S)). In order to meet this filing deadline, the information needed to complete the return should be received in this office no later than April 5th, (March 5th for partnerships and S corporate).

If an extension of the time is required, any tax due with this return must be paid with that extension. Any amounts not paid by the filing deadline may be subject to interest and late payment penalties. The law provides various penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability.

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such governmental tax examination, we will be available, upon request, to represent you and will render additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred. Our fee for these services will be based upon the amount of time required at standard billing rates plus out-of-pocket expenses. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation.

Without a written request from you, we will not prepare any other tax returns including, but not limited to payroll taxes, sales tax, use tax, forms 1099/1096 and excise tax. Our engagement to prepare your 2021 tax returns will conclude with the delivery of the completed returns to you (if paper-filing) or your signature and our subsequent submittal of your tax return (if e-filing). If you have not selected to e-file your returns with our office, you will be solely responsible to file the returns with the appropriate taxing authorities. Review all tax-return documents carefully before signing them. If the foregoing fairly sets forth your understanding, please sign the enclosed copy of this letter in the space indicated and return it to our office. If this office does not receive from you the original of this letter, in fully executed form, but receives from you materials to prepare your tax return, then such receipt by this office shall be deemed to evidence your acceptance of all of the terms set forth above.

Thank you for the opportunity to be of service. If you have any questions, contact our office at (515)271-8183.

Sincerely,

David J. Mote, CPA

2021 Information Pertaining to the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA)

On March 11, 2021, the President of the United States signed into law the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) that authorized a third round of stimulus payments and advanced payment of the Child Tax Credit. The IRS issued notices that provided the amounts you received for these payments. This information is necessary to accurately complete your 2021 individual tax return. Information provided below explains what notice you received and how to obtain the information if you no longer have the notice or have yet to receive a letter.

Stimulus Payment (Economic Impact Payment (EIP))

The third round of EIP or stimulus payments began mid-March 2021. Individuals could have received up to $1,400 ($2,800 for married couples filing a joint return). Qualifying dependents may have also received $1,400. Unlike the first two payments, EIP3 was not limited to children under 17. Families may have received the payment based on all of the qualifying dependents claimed on the tax return. Most families received $1,400 per person, meaning, a single person with no dependents may have received $1,400 while a family of four may have received $5,600. Notice 1444-C was sent following the payments and Letter 6475 will be issued in January 2022 with a combined total.

If you no longer have Notice 1444-C, or have not received Letter 6475, log in to your IRS Online Account to get the accurate amount of EIP3 received.

1. Go to irs.gov.
2. Select "View Your Account Information."
3. Select "Log in to your Online Account" and follow the prompts provided.

Advance Child Tax Credit Payments

Under ARPA, the maximum amount for the Child Tax Credit (CTC) was increased from $2,000 to $3,600 for each child 5 years old and under. For children ages 6 - 17, the maximum increased to $3,000. In July 2021, eligible families that did not opt out began receiving advanced CTC payments up to $300 per month for each child age 5 and under and up to $250 for each child between the age of 6 and 17. IRS will issue Letter 6419 to provide the amount received per taxpayer and how many children were taken into account to determine the amount received.

If you no longer have Letter 6419, or have not yet received it, follow the directions above to log in to your online account to access the Child Tax Credit Update Portal or log directly in to the portal using the instructions below. For married couples filing a joint return, the taxpayer and spouse will both need to log in to get the amount apportioned to each taxpayer.

1. Go to irs.gov.
2. Select "Child Tax Credit Update Portal."
3. Select "Manage Advance Payments" and follow the prompts provided.
