Thank You, God, for everything.

God, Your presence in my life is dearer to me than I could ever hope to put into mere words.

I am blessed in knowing that You are aware of my love for You, that You hear every whisper of love from my heart.

When I call for You, I know You will answer, for You are my loving parent—a parent who always cares for and nurtures me, I know with a knowledge born of faith that You will never leave me.

I give my all to You. With every waking moment, I dedicate my life, my thoughts, and my actions to living my divine potential.

I give thanks to You now for guiding me when I seemed lost, for loving me when I thought I was unlovable, and for filling me with peace when I felt there was none to be found. Thank You, God!

“I will counsel you with my eye upon you.”

Psalm 32:8
