

Reverend Patricia Hohm

Reverend Patricia Hohm's journey is deeply rooted in spiritual dedication and service.

Rev. Patricia Hohm is a compassionate and steadfast presence within the Independent Spiritualist Association of the United States of America. Rev Hohm has devoted her spiritual path to healing, service, and inspired connection. From her earliest days of study to her full ordination as Minister, she has walked each step with humility, integrity, and an unwavering dedication to spiritual growth.

Patricia began her formal journey by earning certifications in healing and mediumship, where her sensitivity and care quickly set her apart. She then became an Associate Minister, a role in which she offered heartfelt care, healing services, and support to those seeking spiritual guidance. Her ordination as Minister represents the culmination of deep commitment not only to her own unfoldment, but to the growth of the wider community she serves.

Known for her grounded presence and sincere devotion, Rev. Hohm continues to uplift others through her gifts, whether at the pulpit, in healing sessions, or through quiet acts of service that ripple outward. Her work reflects the Association's highest values, ethics, spirit communication, healing, and love.

Rev. Hohm is a devoted minister whose path is defined by compassion, creativity, and unwavering service to both spirit and community. A fully ordained Minister with the Independent Spiritualist Association of the United States of America, Rev. Hohm earning her way step by step in healing, mediumship, and associate ministry—each is a reflection of her deep commitment to spiritual growth and ethical practice.

As pastor of the Golden Light Spiritualist Church, she provides heartfelt leadership rooted in love, wisdom, and integrity. Her work extends far beyond the pulpit: She believes in meeting people where they are, and her ministry shines brightest in the everyday spaces of life.

Rev. Hohm generously volunteers her time at local schools, especially with kindergartners, where she reads stories and sparks young imaginations through art. A gifted painter herself, she encourages children to discover their own creative voices through brushstrokes, color, and holiday crafts that celebrate joy and self-expression.

Her nurturing spirit doesn't stop there. Once a week, she rolls up her sleeves to cook meals for veterans at the VFW, offering nourishment not just in food, but in warmth and companionship. Whether through a healing session, a child's painting lesson, or a home-cooked plate, Our Rev. Patricia brings the essence of ministry to every act she touches.

In all things, Rev. Hohm embodies the heart of spiritualist service: humble, wholehearted, and deeply attuned to both human need and divine presence.

Through her quiet acts of kindness and tireless devotion, Rev. Patricia Hohm reminds us that true ministry is not only preached—it is lived. Her path continues to be a light for those seeking comfort, creativity, and connection.
