

Rev. Nellie Vardaman joined her family 7 August at 2:15 pm. She was instrumental in the continuity of the First Spiritual Church of Prayer. Her adamant nature provided her with direction allowing her to call the chapel her home. She considered where she lived her second home. She didn't accomplish this alone. Rev. Ray Vanett, Jesse Barrier, Hazel, Neil Garwood, and others assisted when and where they could.

After Rev. Nellie's parents transitioned from this plane, her family became Chloe, Lion King, Pippin, others. They filled her life with laughter. Of course, there were others, but she spoke of them the most. They were most extraordinary people as they were her pets.

When Rev. Nellie finally stepped through the door, she left us with an interesting thought. The door is only wide enough for one. When we are through, there are loved ones there to greet us. We are greeted with love when we exit the door into this realm, and we are greeted with love when we exit the door, entering the next.

Sincerely,
Rev. Phillip J. Falcone
