Reverend Catherine Dorr
310 E. Addison St.
Jackson, Michigan 49201

Reverend Catherine Dorr serves as Secretary on the Board of the Independent Spiritualist Association of America, (ISA) where she helps guide the vision and values of contemporary Spiritualism. She is also the devoted pastor of Divine Wings Fellowship Spiritualist Church, a space known for nurturing spiritual gifts and building heartfelt community.

For over 25 years, she has owned a business in her community, blending spiritual and secular elements to positively affect those she interacts with. Her influence has proven far reaching and extensive.

Reverend Dorr is a spiritual teacher who combines biblical wisdom and the blending of universal concepts with Eastern philosophy. Renowned in Michigan and the Midwest, she has impacted many lives with her intuitive insight and healing presence across the United States and Canada.

Beyond the pulpit, Rev. Dorr brings her ministry into the everyday, offering outreach through the tender act of baking for elderly communities. Her homemade goods are more than just nourishment; they're symbols of love, connection, and continuity in the sacred work of caregiving. Through every role she inhabits, Rev. Dorr embodies a grounded, grace-filled spirituality rooted in service.

A dedicated member of the Independent Spiritualist Association and affiliated with the United Spiritual Council of Nations, (USCN) she is committed to fostering spiritual growth that honors diverse paths while staying grounded in universal truths. As a sought-after public speaker and guide, her teachings inspire others to discover their own inner knowledge and embrace the sacred in everyday life.

Reverend. Dorr's work addresses both theoretical and practical aspects, aiming to help people find their purpose in life. She communicates her ideas through public speaking, workshops, and personalized guidance. Rev. Dorr is known for her work in spiritual development. Her background includes biblical teachings, universal concepts, Eastern teachings, and Native American wisdom and healing traditions.
