For those of you that are coming in on Friday night, I will conduct a workshop sponsored by the Spiritualist First Church of Truth. This event is not part of the ISA quarterly nor its agenda.

Step into a world where history, science, and spirituality converge in the captivating mystique of crystals and crystal balls to unlock the secrets of the past and the mysteries of the future.

Join us for a captivating journey into the multidimensional significance of crystals and crystal balls. Whether you are drawn to their scientific properties, symbolic depth, or mystical allure, this workshop will deepen your understanding and connection to these fascinating spheres of wonder.

I will connect fascinating insights into how these crystals and crystal balls have been used across time and traditions for centuries. We can learn to harness their mystical energy in our own life. Whether you are drawn to their historical legacy or their ethereal charm, this experience will deepen your understanding and connection.

In my workshop, you will uncover the historical legacy of crystals and crystal balls - from their role in cultural traditions to their optical marvels in material science. They have a tremendous spiritual significance for connecting to the eternal spirit world.

Through an engaging video presentation, informative handouts (sent directly to your email), and a hands-on experiential gazing session, you will explore the art of crystal scrying - learning how to harness their reflective power for insight and clarity.

This is a world where history, science, and spirituality converge the unveiling mystique of crystals and Crystal balls that has enchanted humanity for centuries.

If you are drawn to their scientific intrigue, symbolic meaning, or mystical charm, this workshop will offer you a journey into the multidimensional significance of crystal balls.

I hope to see all of you there,

Rev. Mahala D. Bacon, Th.D.
