The season of Lent is a penitential season, which starts Ash Wednesday, the Wednesday after we celebrate Transfiguration. This year, Ash Wednesday is March 5. Lent is 40 days long, plus 6 Sundays. Sundays are not included in the 40 days, because each Sunday is a "Little Easter," full of celebrating the joy of the resurrection, a different vibe than the somberness of Lent.

Unlike Christmas, Easter has no specific "always" date. Sometimes it is a "late" Easter (in April), and sometimes it is an "early" Easter, in March. The earliest Easter can be is March 22, and the latest is April 25. Easter is the first Sunday after the first full moon after March 21 (spring equinox). If the full moon occurs on a Sunday, Easter is celebrated the following Sunday. So, counting back 46 days (including Sundays) determines when Ash Wednesday is. This year Easter is April 20, minus 46 days brings us to Wednesday, March 5 for Ash Wednesday.

Lent originally was a season of preparation of baptism, when catechumenates (candidates for baptism) would be taught (catechized) about the Christian faith. They would be baptized at the Easter Vigil service on Easter Saturday. They would be taught about Jesus, about the history of the church, the creeds and other beliefs of the church. This was an intense time! Baptism was a big deal early on, because becoming a Christian could cause rifts in families and communities. The person being baptized was turning their back on their former life, and taking up a new life as a follower of Jesus.

The same happens now in baptism, but in a different way. We usually baptize babies, who have no “say” in what is happening to them. Parents and sponsors/godparents promise to bring up the child in the Christian faith, teaching them the prayers, the creeds and the 10 Commandments. This would include bringing them to LIFT/Sunday school, worship, VBS, and other educational activities. They promise to put scripture in their hands, which we do at age 3 and grade 3. Parents do not do this alone! The congregation, representing the whole Church, promises to help parents keep these promises, as the early baptized Christians were surrounded and supported by their community of faith.

Lent is a good time to reflect on faith and life. There is a book series “40 Day Journey with...” all sorts of people – Martin Luther, Joan Chittester, and Parker Palmer are three of the series that I have. There are also other places that offer Lenten devotions, some online, some in printed form. Here is a list someone else created of a few options:

Lutheran World Relief Wildfire Disaster Project

Lutheran World Relief is requesting kits, quilts and funds to address the California Wildfire Disaster as well as the Carolina Hurricanes of last fall. The supply of the quilts and kits is constantly being shipped in the U.S. as well as around the world.

To help with this project, First Lutheran will be gathering items for the Personal Care Kits starting in February. This is usually a project that is done during Lent, but the decision was made to start now.

ITEMS NEEDED ARE:

- ~Bath Towels (20x40 to 27x52, dark colors preferred, NEW)
- ~Soap (each kit needs 8-9oz bars of soap - or 2-3 bars each)
 - ~Toothbrush (adult size, in original packaging)
- ~Sturdy Comb - there are many different types of hair, so no picks or fine-toothed combs, please!
- ~Metal nail clipper (attached nail file optional)

Nail clippers, bath towels and combs are the items least donated.

Please bring your items to the church and put them in the purple bucket in the Narthex. Kits will be assembled as items arrive. We strive for 40 for the 40 Days of Lent. Last year we sent 44 kits. It would be GREAT to double that amount!

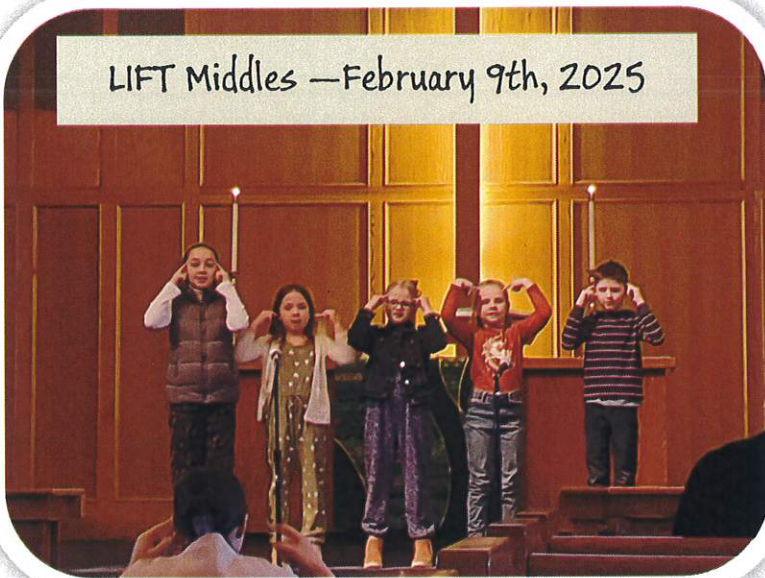

This is a CHURCH project, not just an FLCW project.

THANK YOU for all of your help!!

F.L.C.W News & Activities

March 2025

Dear FLCW,

Greetings to you as we begin the Lenten season with Ash Wednesday on March 5th. Worship will begin at 6:15pm. Hope many of you can attend.

Our Soup Potluck in February was postponed one week due to the frigid weather. It was a good call. At that meeting it was decided to pay half of the cost of a new coffee maker for the kitchen. Looking for a partner to make this happen.

Our next meeting will be a Lunch-About-Town on Tuesday, March 18th. Plans are to travel to Flan-dreau. More information will be coming as to location and times. Carpooling will be available. Of course, March 25th will be the snow date! Hopefully it will not be needed.

A new shipment of sympathy cards arrived. They are available for sale in the library. You may purchase a whole box or individual cards. There is an envelope for the money if Lori is not in the office.

A new shipment of denim rugs will be here by Ash Wednesday. The mud season will be here soon. They make wonderful gifts for showers, birthdays, Mother's Day, etc.

Quilting will be held on Thursday, March 13th & March 27th. Start time is 9:30am.

Cleaning and painting the kitchen will be happening soon. Stay tuned for ways you can help. Men will be needed for some tasks.

As you know, Pastor Ann is covering from her broken leg. Hoping her healing is quick. She is available by phone and will try to get back to the church as soon as possible. Thank you to all who have helped in any way. Helping our neighbor is what we do as a church!

See You in Church!!
