She graduated from Caro High School with the class of 1952 and went on to study at North Eastern School of Commerce, graduating in 1953. Meta married the love of her life, Walter L. Meta dedicated eighty years to participating in 4H and the Tuscola County Fair, contributing in various capacities. She was an avid bowler; her passion and skill for bowling led to her induction into the hall of fame. Until recently, she maintained a schedule of bowling four nights a week. Meta enjoyed keeping busy with activities such as bingo, knitting, tending to her flowers, and watching her beloved hummingbirds. She eagerly anticipated their return this year. Above all else, Meta loved her family; she has left a legacy of love and affection for generations to come.
