FROM THE DESK OF

Fr. Ray Higgins

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On this Feast of the Epiphany, the Church shares a simple but life-changing truth: God reveals Himself to everyone, and those who truly meet Him are never the same.

The Magi followed the light, found Christ, gave their gifts, and then returned home by a different path. Epiphany is not just about seeing Jesus; it is about letting Him guide our lives in new directions.

Isaiah says, “Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come.” This light is not meant to be kept to ourselves. It shines out and draws others in. St. Paul reminds us that this mystery is for all people. The Gospel shows that when Christ is revealed, hearts are moved, lives are changed, and gifts are given. This kind of Epiphany happens every day in our parish.

As we start a new year, I want to thank everyone who supports our parish with their time, talents, and gifts. Thanks to you, our parish runs well, our worship is meaningful, our ministries are active, and Christ’s light shines in our community.

Thank you to our dedicated volunteers, parish groups, councils, committees, and everyone who serves quietly each week. Thank you also to those whose generous financial support keeps our worship, faith formation, outreach, and daily parish life going. Your generosity, both visible and behind the scenes, truly matters.

Epiphany also encourages each of us to ask: What gift is the Lord asking me to bring this year?

No one is expected to do everything, but everyone can do something. Even a small, steady gift of time or support makes a real difference. When we give regularly and with purpose, we help the parish plan well and continue Christ’s mission with confidence.

Like the Magi, we do not give leftovers—we offer our best, not out of obligation, but out of gratitude and trust.

Thank you again for your faith, your generosity, and your love for our parish. Please be assured of my prayers and sincere appreciation.

In Christ’s light,

Fr. Ray Higgins

Featuring Josh Mazrin

Joshua Mazrin is the founder and Executive Director of the Immaculata Institute, an organization which seeks to continue St. Maximilian Kolbe's mission of extending the Blessed Kingdom of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus as far as possible, as soon as possible, through winning over all souls to the Immaculata. The Immaculata Institute offers resources for dioceses, parishes, faith formation groups, and individuals, helping those consecrate themselves to the Immaculata.

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. The term "Epiphany" is derived from a Greek word meaning "to reveal." It is a celebration of God's revelation. Indeed, on Christmas Day, God disclosed Himself in His incarnate Son, the Savior of humanity.

Yet, Epiphany signifies a distinct and extraordinary moment of divine revelation. On this day, the three wise men, also known as magi or kings from the East, visited and honored the Christ Child. Through this act, God's glory was revealed and made manifest to the entire world, symbolized by the presence of the magi.

The revelation of God through the Epiphany underscores that His salvation, made possible through the Incarnation, is universal. It is inclusive and does not discriminate. Though Jesus was born at a specific time and place, the grace He brings transcends all boundaries and limitations.

Consequently, Epiphany serves as a powerful reminder to reject all forms of exclusivity, discrimination, and sectarianism that foster division, hatred, and hostility in the name of religion.

God cannot be claimed as the exclusive possession of any individual or group. His grace is universal, and His revelation cannot be confined or restricted. Religion should not serve as a fortress to enclose God or a barrier to exclude others.

Therefore, the celebration of Epiphany is a resounding call to reject religious extremism and communal violence. It exposes the absurdity of individuals who, under the guise of religiosity, act contrary to its essence.

Such actions often degrade into inhumane cruelty, inflicting suffering upon others. These individuals arrogantly position themselves as self-appointed guardians of God, usurping divine authority and acting as if they were gods themselves.

In truth, God's revelation has not reached the hearts of such individuals. In their efforts to project themselves as mediators of God's grace, they, in fact, obstruct it. They resemble King Herod in the Gospel, who, upon hearing of the Messiah's birth, felt threatened and schemed to destroy the incarnate God.

In contrast, the celebration of Epiphany invites us to emulate the wisdom of the magi. These men recognized Jesus as the Savior and Liberator. They earnestly sought a personal encounter with Him, employing their knowledge, intelligence, and resources—such as scripture and astronomy—to discern His presence.

Their unwavering determination and openness to divine guidance, exemplified by their following of the star, led them on a challenging journey. They demonstrated profound humility and faith by kneeling before the Christ Child and offering Him homage.

The magi's dedication was richly rewarded with the rare privilege of encountering the Savior of the world—a grace denied to many in His immediate surroundings.

Chaplet of Divine Mercy Closing Prayer

Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless, and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments, we might not despair, nor become despondent, but with great confidence, submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy Itself. Amen.
