

M and D Paranormal and Cryptid Research, LLC

Mission Statement

Our goal at M & D Paranormal is to compassionately, knowledgeable, and professionally assist and offer paranormal services to others who have been personally affected by a paranormal experience, including those who have been indirectly affected. No matter the circumstances of the paranormal experience we strive to offer a non-judgmental environment to promote education, open communication, and empathy to each client within our service. We vow that the needs, concerns, and safety of our clients always come first in any paranormal service that we offer.

Group Biography

The idea behind M and D Paranormal and Cryptid Research is to help the community and continue to dispel the stigma associated with the paranormal experience, and at the same time create a community of like-minded individuals while sharing knowledge and understanding, to expand the field in which we research. M and D Paranormal and Cryptid Research were founded by Mary Goyer, Daniel Hurst, and Tess Goyer in the summer of 2017 with the goal of helping others work through and gain knowledge about their paranormal experience. Just as their clients, all members of the M and D Paranormal team have experienced some form of paranormal expertise which is what got each interested in this field.

M and D Paranormal and Cryptid Research's founder, Mary Goyer, has had multiple personal paranormal experiences that she cannot explain but has spent her entire life attempting to understand. Though she does not claim to be psychically sensitive, and before her personal experiences through today, she expresses a natural ability to feel more than our five senses should allow. Her history and they want to help others, has led her to found M and D Paranormal and Cryptid Research. Further, Mary has also spent most of her life perusing her career working as a worker's compensation claims manager for a prestigious insurance company. With this experience, she has gained much knowledge into the world of medicine and law. This has supported her authentic and fierce ability to read one's character and see beneath the surface of any given situation, including paranormal.

Daniel "Tiny" Hurst, the face and co-founder of M and D Paranormal, has had many experiences through his lifetime, both paranormal and cryptid. Many of his skills centered around his childhood homeland of Eastern Tennessee and range from Sasquatch encounters, UFO sightings, and Intelligent hauntings to being attacked twice by forces. He has the extensive history in the medical field, having over 20 years of experience holding a variety of titles. Much of his experience has focused mainly on mental health and substance abuse while going to school for a degree in criminal justice.

M and D Paranormal and Cryptid Research, LLC

Tess Goyer, also known as the “Debunker” of the group, has also spent several years in the medical field, focused on mental health, she has had varied paranormal experiences throughout her life. Though, even not claiming to be sensitive, she is attuned to the energy in the investigation locations and serves a great asset to the M and D Paranormal team. She continues to pursue an education in the helping field and will be graduating in September 2018 with a Bachelor’s of Science Degree in Psychology and Human Services.

While perusing this interest in the paranormal, two members of the M and D Paranormal team have become certified Paranormal Investigators via Joshua P. Warren’s Paranormal Investigation course provided by the Warren Institute. Also, alongside being certified paranormal investigators, the M and D Paranormal team are also active members of the Asheville Cryptid Society. Most recently, M and D Paranormal have also been given exclusive paranormal rights to research the historic Allison-Deaver House in Transylvania County, North Carolina.

Further, the founders of M and D Paranormal and Cryptid Research are dedicated to the to helping the community through research of all things paranormal and by attempting to help others gain clarity into their personal paranormal experiences. By this, the M and D Paranormal Team offer a safe, nonjudgmental place for likeminded people and those that have had experiences to come together once a month at their shop location in Marion, NC for their Paranormal Gatherings. Their eclectic shop in Marion, dubbed THE SHOP, sells items such as different gifts and tools for your spiritual path including Apparel, Books, Jewelry, Crystals and Gemstones, Essential Oil, Herbs and Incense, and more.

Currently, the M and D team offers paranormal investigations and research of private homes and businesses within western North Carolina to properties as far as Tupelo, Mississippi. Along with wanting to assist people with their personal paranormal experience, the M and D Paranormal Team want to give people the opportunity to experience paranormal investigating for themselves. To do this, their team offers ticketed Paranormal Investigation Events at locations within Western North Carolina that the team has examined and recovered paranormal activity and evidence.