

If the world only knew

SOLO

Every day seems like the day before
Keeping to myself but wanting so much more
I could be a painter, or in the hall of fame
I can almost hear them calling out my name
But when people look at me
That's not what they see

If the world only knew what I could do
They would be astounded
If the world only knew what I could do
I would be surrounded
If the world only knew what I could do
Maybe I'd be free
If they could see there's so much more in me

SOLO

I put up my guard to deal with fear
When things get too hard then I disappear

SOLO

I wish that I could tell them and make them understand
Being different wasn't something I had planned

SOLO

But when people look at me, They don't want to see

MUSICAL THEATRE STUDENTS

If the world only knew what I could do
I would be respected
If the world only knew what I could do
I would not be rejected
If the world only knew what I could do
Then I could be free
And they would see all that I have in me.

GROUP 1 JOINS

I would show them all that everyone is different
I would stand up tall
instead of run away
If there was no wall
I'd have nothing standing in my way
There I would be still only me

ALL SCHOOL

If the world only knew what I could do
I would shine in glory
If the world only knew what I could do then I'd tell a different story
If the world only knew what I could do
Finally they would see
I am just - what I'm supposed - to be.
