Meet Your Canadian Military Historian

Tom Leppard

A native of Calgary, Tom Leppard has devoted his life to bringing Canadian history to life. With a graduate degree in Canadian military history from the University of Calgary, Tom has published widely and earned multiple awards for his work as a historian and documentary writer. His film The Forgotten Fallen—honoring overlooked Canadian war heroes—won two prestigious Telly Awards in 2016.

A gifted educator, Tom spent much of his career as a history teacher before serving as President of Valour Canada, a national organization dedicated to preserving and promoting Canada's military heritage. Today, Tom combines his lifelong passions—history, golf, and travel—by leading journeys that offer unique insight into Canada's wartime legacy.

Tom is married, a proud father of two, and a devoted grandfather. Whether on the fairway or at a battlefield site, his warm style and deep knowledge make him a compelling and trusted historian.
