

“A love note to the weird edges of celebrity.”

- Self-Publishing Review

A washed-up, cinema obsessed soul-singer from the 80's falls in love with a sexually ambiguous, unstable British film star, suspected of killing his personal assistant.

CONTACT:

mharlyn-merritt@mharlyn.com

1+267-997-5755 (cell)

Title: THE ACTOR

Author: Mharlyn Merritt

ISBN: 978-1-7169-6043-7: (sc)

ISBN: 978-1-7169-6042-0(e)

Price: $14.99 USD

Published: 8/18/2020

Genre: Up-Market

Comedic/Thriller

Page Count: 253

Trim Size: 6"x9"

Binding: Soft

Publisher: Lulu Publishing

Orders: Amazon.com/Lulu.com

Interview Questions for Mharlyn

- ♦ What do you think are the main pitfalls of the indie writer?
- ♦ Who are your biggest writing inspirations and why?
- ♦ What did you learn on your journey as an author?

Mharlyn Merritt

Mharlyn Merritt is a writer, Jazz vocalist and documentary film producer.

She has an MFA in Creative Writing from Fairleigh-Dickinson University.

The Actor is her first novel. Her writing has appeared in The Philadelphia Daily News, The Village Voice, FDU Gateways, PoetrySuperHighway.com and The Poet's Republic (Scotland) among other publications. She lives, and writes in Philadelphia, PA., where she binge watches Forensic Files, roots for the Phillies, rocks out to Sam Hunt and is hard at work on her second novel, The Rachel Montoya Story <https://mharlyn.com/>

FOR MORE INFORMATION: <https://mharlyn.com/>