

|                     |                                                                                                                              |                                                                 |                                    |
|---------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
|                     | ADVANCED DAY 1Friday, September 19, 2025                                                                   |                                                                 |                                    |
| 7:30-8:00           | Registration & Breakfast                                                                                                     |                                                                 |                                    |
| 8:00-8:15           | Welcome                                                                                                                      | Diane Woods                                                     |                                    |
| 8:15-8:30           | Overview of Advanced Case                                                                                                    | Brandy Daswani                                                  | 15 min                             |
| 8:30-9:30           | Legal Landmines and Lessons -Professionalism Hour – A Guardian adLitem Guide to Professionalism(Professionalism) | Diane Woods (Moderator)Steven CaytonWendy Posey         | 1 hour*Professionalismhour |
| 9:30-10:30      | Duty, Deployment, and Dysfunction – A GAL’sField Guide to Supporting Military FamiliesBreak                          | Patty Shewmaker                                                 | 1 hour                             |
| 10:30-10:45     | Break                                                                                                                        |                                                                 |                                    |
| 10:45-11:45     | Chatting with Children – The Art ofInterviewing as a Guardian                                                            | Dr. Holly Middleton                                             | 1 hour                             |
| 11:45-12:00     | Break to grab lunch                                                                                                          |                                                                 |                                    |
| 12:00-12:45     | LUNCH PANEL TO DISCUSSINTERVIEWING CHILDREN                                                                              | Tori White (Moderator)Dr. Holly MiddletonBrandy Daswani | 45 min                             |
| 12:45-1:00      | Break to dispose of lunch                                                                                                    |                                                                 |                                    |
| 1:00-1:30           | Wine, Whiskey, and What About the Kids?                                                                                      | Brian Wegener,Soberlink                                     | 30 min                             |
| 1:30-2:00           | Our Family Wizard: A GAL’s Crystal Ballinto Co-Parenting Conflicts                                                       | Rebecca Perra,OFW                                           | 30 min                             |
| 2:00-2:30           | Seeing the Spectrum: Supporting Childrenwith Autism as a GAL                                                             | Jennifer Cardenas,Honeycomb Solutions                       | 30 min                             |
| 2:30-3:15           | Sprinkles of Thanks--ICE CREAM SOCIAL                                                                                    | Everyone is WELCOME!                                            |                                    |
|                     |                                                                                                                              |                                                                 |                                    |
| 6:00 pm-9:30 pm | Dead men tell no tales, but Children do:Haunted Ghost Tour & Dinner at thePirate’s House                             | Space limited—first come,first serve. RSVP ASAP             |                                    |
|                     |                                                                                                                              |                                                                 |                                    |

[illegible]