

CHIOS ENERGY HEALING MASTER TEACHER

I am going to quote what is on the Chios Energy Healing web site. One because I need to stay compliant and two because these are CERTIFIABLE courses.

“Chios Energy Healing is the most highly developed and powerful energy healing (aura and chakra healing) modality in the world today. The product of over 25 years of research and testing, it offers not merely a complete suite of the essential basic energy healing techniques (like aura clearing and unblocking chakras) but also a series of advanced breakthrough techniques (chakra charging, chakra system rebalancing, radiator healing, seventh layer aura healing, and frisson healing) that are fundamental advances in energy healing and are not found in any other healing system.

Chios includes a series of exercises that will expand your awareness as an energy healer, including an integral meditation method and personal growth exercises specifically designed for your use in energy healing, as well as new treatment procedures for complementary care of serious illness and common disorders. It is a complete, integrated system for the training of the energy healer (aura and chakra healer), providing not only complementary healing of afflictions and limitations of body, mind and spirit but also a powerful spiritual path for your growth as an energy healing practitioner, as well. Chios Energy healing attunements are available in every country of the world, in-person or as distance attunements. Now you can learn and practice Chios, the energy healing art of the future—of the 21st century and beyond.”

My note: these trainings take what you learn in the Personal classes and the Healing others classes to a different level. Chios is a healing yourself and others channeling method. Extremely powerful, there is a BOOK, WRITTEN INSTRUCTIONS IN BOOKLETS and YOU WILL BE TESTED FOR CERTIFICATION.

I will continue to quote from the website:

“HEALING LEVEL 1

Welcome to Chios Energy Healing, Chios Level 1 is your introduction to this fascinating and powerful healing art. In this introductory level, you will learn to channel healing energy and also to begin to sense the human energy field. You will use these new skills to give your first complete energy healing treatments.

As you begin your study of Chios, you may choose to receive the first Chios healing attunement. It is not at all required that you receive this attunement, should you wish to learn and practice the techniques taught in this level. The first attunement may assist you, however, in more easily acquiring these healing abilities. If you choose to receive the first Chios attunement, be sure to observe the correct preparatory steps, so that you may receive its full benefits.

You are about to embark on a wonderful energy healing journey, where you will learn many exciting techniques and discover—within yourself—knowledge and healing power you may not have suspected were available to you. Chios will be a journey of not merely learning to help and heal others, but a journey of self-discovery, as well. It is important during your exploration of Chios, however, that you practice your healing skills regularly. Practice is essential to bringing out your healing ability, and practice is essential to proper learning, as well. It is through practice that you will really experience the world of the energy healer.”

My Notes: ATTUNEMENTS are separate from the class; ANYONE can have an attunement. Chios 2 and 3 are also available, for training and certification. This is a brief quote from the website on the advanced classes.

CHIOS 2 AND CHIOS 3

“To get the full knowledge and power available from the field of pure consciousness—the higher spiritual reality that governs all healing and provides the knowledge and power that makes it possible—always maintain the openness that keeps you a wide, pure channel. As you heal, always allow the knowledge and power of the higher realm to be your guide, and not any specific guidelines or techniques. You are about to learn many powerful and effective healing techniques, in Chios Levels 2 and 3, but it is not the techniques themselves that are important. They are designed to assist you in contacting and working the unlimited knowledge and power of pure consciousness that lies within you, in the ways necessary to provide healing. Energy healing is much more than the sum of many techniques that can be listed or described in any healing book or website; it is a holistic expression of and contained within this higher realm of pure consciousness. True energy healing is not contained within anything outside yourself; it is found within YOU.”

My notes: cost of the training and certification depends on experience, knowledge, etc. (The more you know, the less work for me.) THERE ARE WRITTEN BOOKLETS, A BOOK AND CERTIFICATION WITH EACH CLASS.

ATTUNEMENTS ARE $60.00

Thanks, Michelle
