

BOARDING AT KEYSTONE

Would you like your horse in an inside stall? Or outside in a sheltered run? Maybe your horse prefers an outside group pen? We also offer the option of stalls with runs attached (based on availability). Prices subject to change.

Indoor stalls	$585/mo
Indoor stalls in with attached run	$650/mo
Individual outdoor pens with shelter (these will raise to $525 when mare motel roofing completed, approx. September 2022.)	$500/mo
Outdoor group pens	$450/mo

All board fees include twice daily feeding of up to 5 flakes of alfalfa hay per day, split between AM and PM feedings.

Special requests can be made for additional hay, grass hay, third feedings, and/or grain supplementation. Any of these special requests come with a surcharge a $40/month.

OTHER SERVICES; RIDING SCHOOL & TRAINING

Need some help with your horse? Need some help with your own riding? Keystone offers lessons on your horse or ours, full or part-time training, exercising, and turn-out services.

Keystone is home to a dozen professionals who come from different disciplines and backgrounds. We think we can match any horse and rider combo to the right trainer based on needs and goals, schedule, and budget. Keystone hosts clinics, on-site shows, guest trainers and instructors, ride-a-test events, and other activities. Watch the Facebook page, look for notices posted in the barn, or talk to a trainer about how to get involved. We also travel to events off-site in Utah and across the country.

Part-time training 12 sessions a month	$450
Full-time training 20 sessions a month	$650
Single training sessions (not rider instruction)	$45
Lunging/Exercise/Hand-walking; holding horse for vet or farrier in your absence	$25/session
3x week Turnout; 5x week Turnout	$75/month; $100/month
See our published Show Fees and Other Rates sheet for info on riding lessons, meds administration, show fees, etc.

Ask for more information on Keystone's Rider Instruction program for children and adults. We have beginner lessons, a traveling show team, and spots for everyone in between.
