

David Brenneman

Senior Permitting Lead
Managing Partner –
Flycatcher LLC

PROFILE

- 12 years of experience in environmental consulting, serving multiple sectors of development including energy, commercial, residential and municipal
- Specialized in siting and development of renewable energy projects from origination through construction
- Provided management and technical support for acquisition of land use permits for over 250 megawatts of new solar installations proposed in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont
- Experienced in management of complex projects, overseeing a multi-disciplinary team of consulting scientists and subject matter experts
- Supports design and implementation of wetland creation, restoration and conservation projects
- Experienced in landowner outreach, stakeholder engagement, project development, and permitting at the local, state and federal levels throughout the northeast
- Experienced consulting scientist and environmental inspector providing construction oversight to ensure permit compliance and protection of natural resources and wildlife

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Electric Transmission and Renewable Energy Permitting
- Federal, State, and Local Land Use Permitting
- Agency Consultation
- Wetland and Wildlife Mitigation
- Wetland Delineation, Functional Assessment and Wetland Mitigation Design and Monitoring
- Vernal Pool Identification and Habitat Assessment
- Stream Identification and Habitat Assessment
- Vegetation and Invasive Species Surveys and Management
- Environmental Permit Compliance Inspection and Reporting
- Environmental Critical Issues Analyses

EDUCATION

B.S., Landscape Horticulture: Design University of Maine, Orono (2003)

PREVIOUS CAREER EXPERIENCE

- TRC: New England Solar Program Manager, Project Manager, Wetland Scientist; Scarborough, Maine (2015 - 2020)
- Boyle Associates: Wetland Scientist; Westbrook, Maine (2008 - 2015)

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS/AFFILIATIONS

- Maine Association of Wetland Scientists – Membership Chair and Communications Subcommittee Chair
- Maine Certified Contractor in Erosion and Sedimentation Control (#1292)

CONTACT:

207.751.3053
dave@flycatcherllc.com