

why i chose Pay It Forward...

The moment I picked up Pay It Forward by Jordi Ricart, I had tears in my eyes. Every page spoke to me—his words, his meditations, and his heart-centered approach to business deeply resonated with my soul.

I first met Jordi years ago through a mutual friend, and his energy was magnetic. He carries a frequency that speaks before he even says a word. Knowing that we both share roots in Barcelona, it felt divinely aligned to have him as the very first author featured in the Rose Codes Book Club.

As a teenager, I would watch Oprah and dream about joining a book club. Now, that dream has come full circle as I create this sacred space for heart-centered conversations, expansion, and deep transformation.

It fills my heart with so much joy to bring this to the world.
