I understand that since 2019 Alliance Reentry Centers has proven to be a unique reentry program that can significantly reduce recidivism at zero cost to taxpayers. The company's expansion promises to support an ever-larger population of participants and create many direct jobs running its residential centers and its app and payment technology platforms.

Sincerely,

Will Barfoot

Since 2019, Alliance Reentry Centers PBC has proven in Alabama that its unique reentry program can significantly reduce recidivism at zero cost to taxpayers. The company's expansion promises to support an ever-larger population of participants and create a large number of direct jobs running its residential centers and its app and payment technology platforms. Because there is a dire need throughout our nation for viable reentry programs, the company's expansion is in the national interest. In my opinion, ARC will positively impact public safety, and, without question, serves a humanitarian purpose. Consequently, I endorse the company's candidacy for "expedited" status as a direct EB-5 project.

Sincerely,

Sue Bell Cobb
Alabama Supreme Court Chief Justice (Ret.)

Alliance Reentry Centers is a win for my county and the work-ready people we release. It costs taxpayers nothing, and their anti-recidivism numbers are strong, which makes our county safer and saves money. When I saw they do drug dog searches, that freed me to endorse this safe release solution to our judges and community corrections people.

Guidance for Using ReentryCenters.com:

1. Our operations are participant-funded, not charity-funded or taxpayer-funded. We are a shareholder-owned private company.
2. We can only accept work-ready participants who can earn a paycheck from the jobs we facilitate. Participants must comply with our house rules, use our proprietary technologies, have a ReentryPay bank account, use ReentryApp to stay on-track with release terms, and keep their mobile phone GPS on. No exceptions.
3. Zoning for our homes forbids acceptance of sex offenders and certain violent offenders. We are good neighbors.
4. ReentryCenters.com is not a drug treatment program or dispensary and not a mental health facility.

Our Team Is Ready 24 X 7.
