

Anti-bribery Continuous Training

Our SUARA E-learning Online Portal is now offering a course to help organizations arm their work force with the basic knowledge of anti-bribery measures and the implications resulting from the corporate liability bribery law.

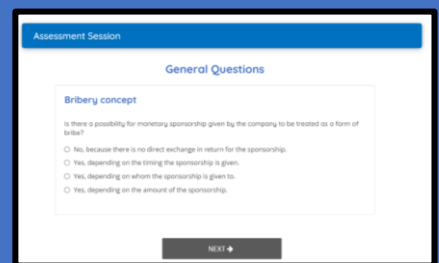

The course is conducted using three (3) different learning formats:

A series of short animation clips instead of lengthy videos to get the message across.

Combined with a straight-forward flashcard learning format to drive the message through.

Short assessment to test understanding of the message delivered. Repeatable if not satisfied with score.

FEATURES:

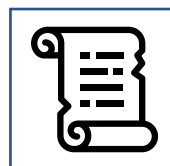

24/7 availability any day any time over the internet or cloud.

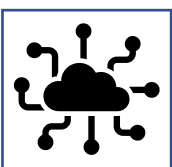

Affordable for SMEs starting at RM2,250 to a group of 30 staff.

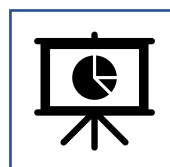

Compliance with the requirements of corporate liability law for continuous training.

Certificate of completion for each participating user.

Accessible using desktop, laptop, tablet or mobile devices.

Results can be generated for future analysis purposes.

CONTACT chris.yee@adequateprocedures.com to find out more!