

The Clarity Compass for Intentional Leadership

DATE: _____ TODAY ' S MESSAGE TO MYSELF: _____

MORNING INTENTION — LEADING WITH CLARITY

1. The one outcome I must make clear for my team today is: _____
2. The message I need to simplify before I communicate it is: _____
3. Someone on my team who needs greater clarity from me today is:

4. The area where I might assume understanding is: _____
5. One way I ' ll connect vision to daily action today is: _____

TOP 3 LEADERSHIP PRIORITIES

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

EVENING REFLECTION — DID I LEAD WITH CLARITY?

1. I was most clear and intentional when I: _____
2. A moment I brought alignment to my team was: _____
3. I could have communicated more effectively by: _____
4. Someone who responded well to clarity today was: _____
5. Tomorrow, I will simplify or clarify this: _____

LEADERSHIP CLARITY SCORECARD (1 – 5)

AREA	QUESTION	SCORE
Clarity	My team understood my direction and expectations.
Alignment	I connected our daily tasks to our larger vision.
Communication	My message was simple, repeatable, and actionable.
Empowerment	My team felt confident to take initiative.
Reflection	I took time to evaluate and adjust how I led.

REMEMBER:

Clarity drives direction.

Direction builds momentum.

Momentum creates results.

Lead Intentionally. Communicate Simply. Align Relentlessly.

Enroll for the Lead With Clarity Course and for other leadership resources and 1:1 Coaching
Go to www.thelifesourceconsulting.com/leadership-course