

Comprehensive Strategy. Customized Plans.

Our specialized programs and expertise empower us to offer unrivaled customized solutions encompassing legal, tax, and investment considerations.

As a plaintiff attorney, your dedication to your client's well-being and securing favorable outcomes is evident. Yet, the settlement process goes beyond immediate results. Choices made during this phase can have lasting impacts on your clients, their families, and your professional liability.

AFG Settlement Planning acknowledges the intricate nature of injury and death cases. We firmly believe that significant settlements merit thorough planning and tailored solutions to safeguard assets, reduce tax burdens, preserve benefits, and ensure a secure future.

The personal connection of our founder, Brian Adair, to the settlement planning sphere stems from witnessing the effects of medical malpractice when his father fell victim. This drove him to expand Adair Financial Group to address the limited options available to plaintiffs in ensuring their long-term financial stability post-settlement.

We extend the same meticulous planning to clients as we do to business owners selling multimillion-dollar enterprises.
