

Alas Departynge is Ground of Woo

Anonymous (15th century)

Alto

A - las de - part-ing is ground of woe, oth - er song

Baritone

A - las de - part-ing is ground of woe, oth - er song

6

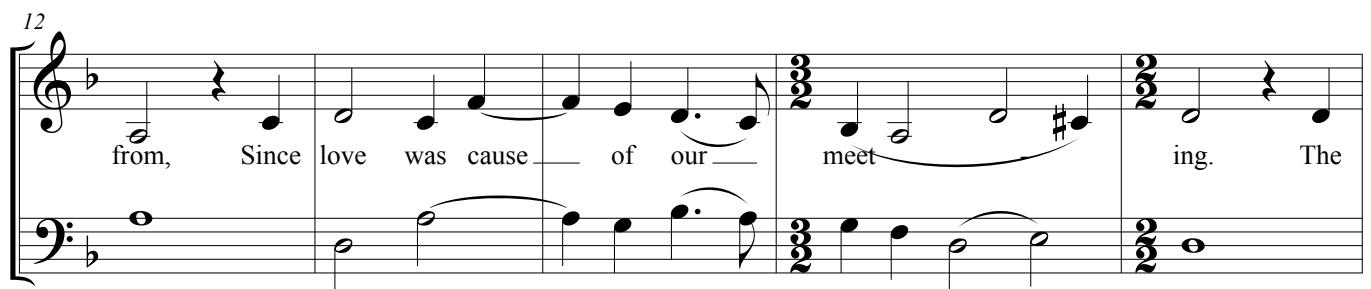

can I not sing but why part I my la - dy

can I not sing but why part I my la - dy

12

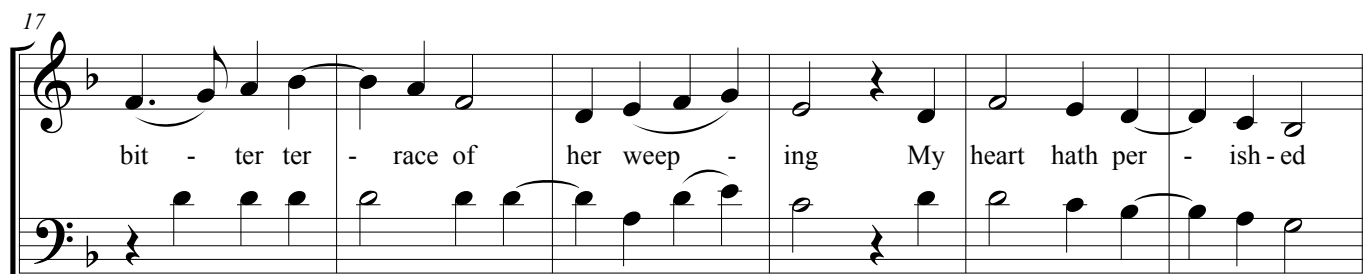

from, Since love was cause of our meet ing. The

from, since love was cause of our meet - ing.

17

bit - ter ter - race of her weep - ing My heart hath per - ish - ed

The bit - ter ter - race of her weep - ing My heart hath per - ish - ed

23

so mor - tal - ly that to the death it will me bring, but if I see her

so mor-tal - ly that to the death it will me bring but if I see her

30

ha - sti - ly

ha - sti - ly

Transposed for two male voices

37

A - las de - part-ing is ground of woe, oth - er song

A - las de - part-ing is ground of woe, oth - er song

43

can I not sing but why part I my la - dy

can I not sing but why part I my la - dy

49

from, Since love was cause of our meet - ing. The

from, since love was cause of our meet - ing.

54

bit - ter ter - race of her weep - ing My heart hath per - ish - ed

The bit - ter ter - race of ___ her weep - ing My heart hath per - ish - ed

60

so mor - tal - ly that to the death ___ it will ___ me bring, but if I see her

so mor - tal - ly that to the death ___ it will me bring ___ but if I see her

67

ha - sti - ly

ha - sti - ly _____