Congratulations to our Troop 52 Scouts for completing NYLT!

Srijan Jagalamudi, Aditya Rao, and Nicholas Royal all attended National Youth Leadership Training (NYLT) over spring break. This Scouting program helps boys become leaders. They spent a week at Camp Green Dickson in Shiner learning the finer points of the principles of servant leadership and team building. In Troop 52, we ask all those scouts interested in serving as Senior Patrol Leader to explore leadership training such as this. Congratulations! We are proud of you!

OA Elections – March 21 Troop Meeting

Scouts, we will have elections for Order of the Arrow at the troop meeting on March 21. The Order of the Arrow is the honor society of scouting. One can only be elected into it by one's peers. All scouts vote, whether they are in OA or not. To be eligible, a scout must be at least First Class and have camped at least 15 nights in the preceding two years, including one long-term camp (such as summer camp or Philmont) during that time. In order for our election to be valid, we must have a quorum of scouts of a simple majority participate in the election. That means we need at least 36 scouts to attend our troop meeting. A list of eligible scouts will be provided at the election. You may vote for as many or as few as you would like. Adults do not vote, but adult Scouters are eligible to be selected by other adult members of the OA to join their ranks by separate ballot. They must meet the same camping requirements as youth. More info here: <https://oa-bsa.org/about/membership>

Travels: John Gallagher is in Switzerland

I am blessed to be able to visit Kandersteg International Scout Center in Kandersteg, Switzerland. Operating as a "permanent mini-jamboree" the center hosts scouts from around the world year-round for activities and fellowship.

KISC has recently opened its doors for Ukrainian scouts and their families seeking refuge from the ongoing conflict. They are open for donations at the following link:
