The Clients agree to provide a meal for the Photographer if the length of attendance exceeds five hours.

Entire Agreement: This agreement contains the entire understanding between the Clients and the Photographer.

Confirmation: A signed "Contract for Wedding Photography Services" is necessary to confirm the stated wedding services from the Photographer.

Pre-Wedding Consultation: This typically happens at the time of booking. You, the Clients, will outline what is required, and the Photographer will advise on planning, logistics, and timings where needed. If required, the Clients are welcome to call or meet with Photographer for an additional chat closer to the time of the wedding (about two weeks) to iron out the remaining details. In any case, we will contact you by phone a few days before the wedding to ensure that there have been no last-minute changes.

Cooperation: The Clients and the Photographer consent to happily cooperate and communicate with each other to achieve the best possible result within the understanding of this contract. It is recommended that the Photographer is provided with a member of the wedding party who will point out key individuals to be photographed. The Photographer may also require the assistance of the wedding party member in organizing family groups.

The Clients also agree to give the Photographer sufficient warning of key events at the wedding to give the Photographer time to prepare, e.g., Bouquet throwing, cutting the cake, speeches, etc. Please note that not all guests at weddings like having their photos taken. In such cases, the Photographer will use their discretion but cannot be held responsible for the lack of pictures of these people.

The Schedule: The shooting schedule, working style, and experience are designed to achieve a great set of wedding photos for the Clients, accomplished with good humor and enjoyed by all concerned. Therefore, both the Clients and Photographers agree that punctuality and cheerful cooperation are essential to producing outstanding photographic results. In cases where the wedding does not run on time (for example, extreme lateness by one of the Clients arriving at the church) we cannot guarantee to take our usual set of photos although in such circumstances we will do our absolute best to compensate.

Paparazzi Wedding Guests: All your guests will have digital cameras/ phones and will want to photograph the Clients. In the spirit of cheerful cooperation, the Clients agree to give the Photographers precedence over the guests to take the photographs required for the wedding services described above. However, we cannot be held liable for the lack of wedding photos if guests taking pictures of the Clients continually interrupt the Photographer's work.

House Rules: Note that Photographers are sometimes limited by rules imposed by registrars, ministers, and venue management regarding what can and cannot be done. For example, some ministers insist that no flash photography is allowed, and others will insist that the Photographers shoot from a specific location. In such circumstances, the Clients agree to accept the technical limitations that may be imposed on the equipment used. We advise the Clients to make themselves aware of the rules of the venue concerned and, if necessary, negotiate with the personnel concerned.

Copyright Law: The copyright of photographs remains with the Photographer. The Photographer grants the Clients permission to make copies of the images under the following conditions. The pictures taken by the Photographer are for personal use by the Clients and their friends and relatives. Sale, Publication, or any Commercial use of the photographs is not allowed without prior written permission from the Photographer.

Model Release: The Clients grant the Photographer and its legal representatives, heirs, and assigns the irrevocable and unlimited consent to use the photographs of the Clients for editorial, competition, advertising, and any other purpose and in any manner, to alter the pictures without restriction, and to copyright the images. The Clients hereby release the Photographer and its legal representatives, heirs, and assigns from all liability and claims concerning the photos.

Limit of Liability: If a photographer is too ill or becomes injured and cannot supply the wedding services specified above, the Photographer will try to book a replacement wedding photographer. Under normal circumstances, a second photographer, the Photographer, is there for the day anyway, and this Photographer will then shoot the day on their own. If both photographers are unavailable and a replacement photographer cannot be found, then liability is limited to a refund of any payments received. Photographers have working methods to prevent loss or damage to your images. However, in the unlikely possibility, images may be lost, stolen, or destroyed for reasons in or beyond our control. In these circumstances, liability is limited to the return of fees paid for the service or part thereof according to the percentage of images supplied.

Cancellation Fee: If the Clients cancel the wedding for whatever reason, the Cancellation fee is $200.00 is non-refundable. It will be considered as liquidated damages to the Photographers.
