

Title Specialists of Virginia, LLC

September/October 2020 Newsletter

The Fall Edition!

Happy October! September was so quick (and busy), it was over before we knew it. Since our September Newsletter fell by the wayside to allow for more time for settlements, we are bringing you a deluxe edition of our Newsletter this month for September AND October—we'll call it "The Fall Edition"! We hope you enjoy it.

Thank you for your continued support. We wish you all a wonderful, successful month ahead!

PLEASE NOTE

Our fax number has changed: (833) 305-0930

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

 Our office will be CLOSED on Monday, October 12, for Columbus Day

 Remember to set your clock back one hour on Sunday, November 1

What is a certificate of occupancy? Why homeowners or investors may need one

(from msn.com)

What if a homeowner is both delinquent and in forbearance?

(from housingwire.com)

Mortgage rates hit record lows—could they fall even further?

(from realtor.com)

New home sales crush expectations, but the supply is running out

(from cnbc.com)

How long does it take to buy a house?

(from houselogic.com)

Millennials who stayed home by saving money in a better position to buy homes

(from wtvr.com)

6 things you need to know before buying a foreclosure

(from bhg.com)

Pandemic home remodeling is booming: Here's what your neighbors are doing

(from msn.com)

Why waiting to buy a 'forever home' could mean never owning a home at all

(from huffpost.com)

Also in this issue

What to do in the first 24 hours after a flood (from houselogic.com) | What makes a home age-friendly? (from usatoday.com)