

MTA-SN Newsbrief, February 2018

Happy New Year!

Our next meeting is coming up on Wed., February 7. A teachers' roundtable discussion is planned for that day. I hope you can join us for a lively conversation on various music teaching subjects. Be sure to bring your own ideas, questions or concerns. We'll have a cozy discussion over coffee, tea and refreshments with winter raging outside.

The Olive Garden luncheon was a huge success, we had around 12 teachers in attendance. Spirits were bright and we had a fun time.

MTNA sent a thank-you note for our $50 donation to the Benevolence Fund for teachers affected by hurricane Harvey.

As Spring approaches, we will be forming a nominating committee and a new slate of officers for 2018-19. With a small group of active members such as ours, the process of filling offices is sometimes a challenging one. I will be retiring as president this year as health issues struck me without warning this past Fall, it was certainly a sobering experience. If you are asked to fill a position as an officer or chairman I hope you can say "yes"!
