We appreciate the hard work and long hours of the original editor and secretary of the Lerch Reunion, the late Camille H. H. Heckman, who compiled the data and typed the original manuscript. Her colorful, period prose and quaint phrasing has been left intact.

The last section of the book to date, Civil War veteran Benneville Lerch and his son, Alfred, came to be only due to the research by Pennsylvania cousin Thomas R. Lerch.

OUR HOMELAND

"Einleintaungs Worten, Anfang den Larich Familie."

Odenwold, a wooded mountainous region in the Grand Duchy of Hessa Darm Statt. History of that town begins with the partition of Hesse in 1567, but two years earlier, in 1565, we have records that they belonged to Marke-bold Congregation. The baptisms and marriages accurately dated, as being their birthplace. At that date they had a Larich Dahl, and Marke-bold was two miles away from the church. Also called Langenselbold Gemeinshafticha Kirche. Authorized by letters direct from the Ministers in 1932. We feel safe to their affability.

"PREFACE"

How the Generations Came:

Most of the Northampton Countians can guide them by it. There might be a few exceptions, but rather these ancestors than after the ones who came later and were" traveling in the Northwesterly direction. History predicts that the last named are more or less descendants from another party that immigrated in years later. But, Patience endureth all. It will take some studying to find your ancestors no doubt, but still it is easy towards what it meant at the beginning for one man to trace these many points. Realizing it was to locate many from the Eighth and Ninth, generation because some could not give their ancestors of One or Two generations.

Let us rejoice with the progress made, and try to do our bit, not criticizing, or find faults, as long as we cannot do better. Be courteous, loyal, help to bear each other's burdens, by so doing many obstacles can be removed, and live in peace, and harmony, continue as one great family, fulfill the adage that in union there is strength.

Thinking of our Ancestors how they toiled; first had to clear the land from trees, from the wood, then prepared and built their homes, with no seed drill, and grass cutting machine, or self-binder, no factory, to make their clothes, but had to sow flax, cut it, bleach and prepare it for the linen material. Raised sheep, cut the wool, washed and bleached for weeks near a stream sometimes two miles away from their homes, and went on horseback twice a day to sprinkle it. They had to do that because they had no big cisterns two hundred years ago and the limestone well water would not answer the purpose.

First, they raised the cattle. In butchering, they gathered the tallow, melted it, and poured it in forms called candle forms. This process is used at the present time, as candles are always in use around the holiday seasons.

Their floors were mostly bare, but were scrubbed bright and clean, decorated with silver sand every Saturday. No bakers came around, and there was no need for a tin can opener. They dried most of the berries, apples, etc. They even made their coffee from oats and some bran and wheat. They had bags full of dried tea, and other needful things. But they had to do it. Think of the blue Mondays. Rubbing first of all, by hand, next they rubbed on a smooth board. To boil their soap they would splash water on wood ashes (for they had no coal) and strained them. That they called lye, and made very good and healthy soap,

They knitted their stockings, mittens, made their shoes. The writer saw shoes where the hair of the animal was still on the inside of the shoes, while the outside were of nice leather treated with a liquid called shellac made from the sap of certain trees, They were neat, sewed and strong and nice.

In summer they went barefooted, even to Church, and Sunday School, they would wear Shaker sunbonnets, made of linen, and pasteboard. When frost, and cold weather would set in, they would wear warm woolen stockings and shoes. Carriages and buggies were scarce. The women, as well as the men had riding horses, to go to Church and business places. Stones measuring 27 to 30 inches were permanently placed for them to alight and get on their horses. They used wooden baking troughs, or molds, with covers where the bread was kneaded. After it was baked, they scraped the dough from the mold and then by putting water on it made the paste resembling yeast to start the next bread.

It was in the Eighteenth Century that people learned to bake wheat bread and pies. Before, it was barley and rye. They would get one dress a year. The flax was woven into a fabric, after the women spun it, at home. The dress worn Sundays the previous year would then be the weekday dress. The same principle was carried out in footwear. Often one pair served for weekdays and Sundays. Every Saturday evening they would thoroughly clean, and grease them with sheep tallow prepared for that purpose, and those were strict "rules."

Many interesting records of the different ages, but best of all, they worshipped the same "God" and "Trinity," knowing but one way of Salvation through "Jesus Christ" the crucified one. While all things change, let us keep our faith steadfast, perform our duties nobly, till finally, we reach our destination, safe and "Reunions" have no end.

Many of our well-known members have answered their last call. How eager they were to see this "History Book" finished, and worked with all their energy to get data, but so far, and no farther. "We have no abiding City, Ours is a city yet to come, Onward, onward, we are hastening, on to that Eternal Home. From above descending spirits move, to wipe the falling tear from mortal eyes, To bring to Earth, the nectar from the Skies. To blend with human grief, the Angels sympathize."

There prevailed a missing link, for nineteen years, preventing the setting up of this "History." The Historian passing from this life, the present historian was elected in 1940, and finally discovered the rather puzzling, but not unfamiliar circumstances, and set up the "History," with accompanying literature, and self composed "poems," while reading it, to make it more admirable.

The writer extends sincerest thanks, for all favors, knowing that heights cannot be reached by a single step. And pearls do not swim on the water, but we must dive deep. Neither can crops be reaped, with out storm, and rain, but sunshine, and this is the sunshine of all our efforts.

The following members deserve respect as contributors to the Historian, while others served in various ways, from young to old, and made this "LERCH" reunion a success. Contributors were all philanthropists, names, viz: Adam Lerch, Rev. C. D. Lerch, Historian Wm. P. Lerch, Henry L. Lerch, Milton T. Lerch, all deceased. Rev. "ORIGIN OF THE LERCH, LOERCH, NAME"

It is said that at one time, when the peasants in Germany, were out in the harvest field, they were attracted by a commotion amongst the Sky-larks, called Lorch, in German, in an adjoining field, over a certain spot in the ground. Upon investigation, they discovered a male infant, yes deserted! and not knowing where it belonged, they were at a loss to know what to do. Finally one of their number, a pretty maiden stepped forward and said in German, "Gib mir den youngen Loerch, a bird, ich will ihn aufziehen." Which interpreted means: "Give me the young Lark, I'll raise it." Thus is the Legend of the "Lerch" name.

"HISTORY OF THE LERCH FAMILY IN THE U. S. A."

A Clan has gathered by the name of Lerch,
Their ancestral point they began to search.
Their plan, and efforts, not in vain,
Here stands the "Records" very plain.
Author, Historian Camilla H. H. Heckman.

The letter in German in this book is also printed in English and is a substantial foundation, where the "Lerchs" built on their "History."

On the 12th of June 1688, John Conrad Lerch and Gertrudes married to each other, had an infant son baptized, bestowing the name Andreas Lerch. Godfather being Andrew Schmidt, laborer. The German letter, with the original church record at Langenselbold, Vol. No. 1, accords through transcription and officially. The seal of the letter head reads: Evangelical KirchenGemeinSchaft in Langenselbold, Germany, Evangelical Congregational Church. It is 9 miles from Merkobel, where Andreas was born and reared. Signed Rev. G. L. Lill, pastor.

The Lerch history beginning in Germany had a place where this name was spelled different ways, viz: Loerch, Lorch, Larch. Their home-town was called Lorch Dahl, but in the 18th century it was changed to LERCH, and still remains, From there they scattered over a large area in the world. In Germany there were wars; difficulties, unrest in civic and religious laws, laying in ashes many villages. Our people feared. Being hard working peasants, some day all would be taken from them, and desired to keep their faith, fled to another country, "America."

"AN EMBLEM OF RESPECT IN POETRY"

Our Forebears came from foreign lands,
To this America so grand.
From war, and tumult, they did flee,
For Peace, and Piety, did plea,
Though waves, and clouds, before them rolled,
They would not wander from "God's" fold.
But kept the "Faith," though sore distressed, And found this home securely blest.

Author, Camilla H. H. Heckman,
Sec., R. No. 4, Allentown, Pa.

They have truly woven for us a beautiful pattern. And left for us descendants a wonderful example, that we could not forget, and tried to study more and more till finally our dreams of two hundred and three years, through professional and educated people have succeeded accurately, and by personal visits, have learned, that the original home of the Lorch, or Lerch, is Marke-bold, Germany.

As early as 1560, there are records on file in Germany. Although we take the most interest in it since they have immigrated, in Phila., Sept. 16, 1738. But the character, or father of this history, as we would honorably call him, has been favorably known as early as A. D. 1722, in the Palatinate, Germany. The Protestant Church at Langenselbold records one by the name of Casper (Kaspar) Lorch. Though they traveled in different directions, and different vessels they evidently joined each other's party at some point and arrived with each other at one time, and same destination.

No. 1, Kaspar, and his son Johannes started at Rotterdam. Andreas, No. 1, and 3 sons, No. 1, Anthony, No. 2, Peter, No. 3, Gratius, at Deal, England. No. 1, Andreas, No. 1, John, and Johannes, No. 2. These last named J's were two families who were very close friends in Germany. Records showed that they had intermarried with each other. No. 1, John Laubach, No. 2, Johannes Lerch and Andreas Lerch. They were about the same age and were termed a generation ahead from the others. They came on the vessel named Queen Elizabeth, the captain was Alexander Hope, landing at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 16th, 1738.

No. 1 Andreas Lerch was born 1683, died 1738; daughter Sabina Lerch, married a Mr. Frieman, born 1710, died 1802, no issue, 1st son Anthony born 1718, more facts later, 2nd son Peter born 1720, 3rd son Gratius, born 1722. Gratius was not registered and it was unlawful to register under eighteen years. Some younger children came along. As Andreas died the same year, we trace our ancestral paint to Sons Anthony, Peter, and Gratius. Some history is traced to the younger children included in the Andreas Lerch landing.

It is interesting to note their course of traveling. They started eastward, from the river Nile in Germany, then proceeded to Holland, to Rotterdam, changed to afore said vessel Proving that they started on the same ship, Queen Anne, with No. 1, Johannes and No. 1, Kaspar, or Casper, making a stop at Holland, they then went across the ocean. According to historical facts, there were about 400 passengers. On their arrival at Philadelphia, Pa., they engaged a Conestoga wagon, to take them to Durham, Pa., Furnace, a small charcoal furnace where Riegel's Mill now stands, where they had friends living. They spoke the German language. Naturally, when they met each other lovely and affectionate greetings were exchanged, resembling the little greeting following, in German.

"EIN KLEINER GRUSZ"

Mit freed und freud und Seligkeit, Begehnen wir euch all heit. Mit gluck erreichten wir den strand, und Bohnen wert von streiten laud. Mit gnad und lieb der "Herr," regiert, uns blaubichen so selig furht. Mit Seiner lieb brachter uns yestz, zu eira Heimath unverletzt.

In English translated it reads: With Piety, and Joy, and Peace, To you our greetings we release Successfully we reached the strain, Came far from the war stricken land. With Grace, and Love, the "Lord" controls, We followed all as faithful souls. With His true love, He brought us here, Unharmd to home of friends so dear.

This Riegel's furnace was in operation since 1727 in full blast, by John Taylor, Supt. James Morgan, and James Logan, iron master. Here they unloaded their goods brought from the Father-Land, and settled down to early Spring whence they proceeded in search of more of their American friends.

Three to four miles distant in a northwesterly direction. About one mile distant from the furnace, they crossed Durham Creek, and followed an Indian trail-path, till they came to a high hill, namely Christian hill, where there was a large Indian Encampment and implement factory. Some of the descendants have weapons, which are more than 200 years old as relics of that factory.

On the northern exposition of Christian hill was at that time a cleared spot where the Indian tribes north of Durham furnace held their annual council with other Indian tribes. 1st. Gen. Anthony Lerch, and Christian Laubach, saw from Christian hill, that grand country stretch out to the northwest, They were so pleased with the valley that they immediately followed onward till they came to a creek. It is now called Saucon or Laubach's Creek. It had suitable power to run mills. A poem to honor "Dear Nature's Supplies":

No lovelier spot can ever be hit,
Than the clear water of Saucon Creek,
While power it gives for industries great,
Through energy of our forebears, great progress was made.

P. S.-The Historian is author of all the poems in this "History" but two - C. H.

The aforesaid derived the name after Captain Christian Laubach fought the Indians along with his company of "Saucon Rangers" at the Frontier from 1755 to 1757, when his company merged with Capt. Wetherall's by "Orders of Benjamin Franklin, Sec. of Wars." Here along the trail or path, the Lerch's and Laubach's erected first log cabins. They cleared small tracts of land.

In the Geo. W. Laubach history, we find recorded, that Andreas (Andrew) Lerch, Sr., purchased land from the Hon. John Thomas, and Richard Penn, viz: 1st, conveyed to Anthony Lerch, Feb. 12, 1755, 146 Acres 14 Perches, 2nd, Feb. 24, 1789, 60 A. 20 P., 3rd, March 7, 1789, 23 A. 83 P. Total 1229 A. 117 P. Next Anthony conveyed to his son Peter Oct. 12, 1760, 210 A. afterward Peter to son David, 1815, 29 A. 117 P. After they had settled on that land, they erected buildings. Later sawmills, gristmills, along this Saucon Creek, which provided water and power to conduct their business and industries. Andreas was 50 years when they landed, and must have died same year as to records, this history gives the activities of his three sons as notable characters. Anthony Lerch, Sr., 1st son, born in Markebold, Germany, September 29th, 1718, is the character of many descendants. In this year 1755, in America, possessed 229 A. 117 P. legally which he had received from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and granted it to his son Anthony, Jr. also granted to him Dec. 8, 1773, two tracts of land on which a mill was built May 18, 1773. Also granted to him the water rights and dam for the mill.

Here at this mill Richard Blockhouse, proprietor of the old charcoal furnace at Durham obtained his grain flour and feed he used while managing the iron works. In 1743, a gristmill was built in Bethlehem, Pa., the present site of Luckenbach's mill. The iron for this mill was cast at the charcoal furnace at Durham. For many years, the Moravians at Bethlehem, Pa., dealt extremely with the Durham iron works. Viz: in bellows, pipes, plates for stoves. The Lerch's is located on the old road leading from Saucon Church to Durham about one-half mile east of Laubach's mill and about three-fourth of a mile west of the old William's Tw's'p Church. The following are the various transactions of this mill. Owners and prices, note the difference financially in several years. 1st. Anthony, Sr., year 1755, 2nd. Anthony Lerch, Jr., year 1773, 3rd. Mr. Leidich, 1796, 4th. Mr. Kichline, year 1816, 5th. Geo. Applegate, year 1855. 6th. Mr. More, paid in the year 1865, $1000.00, 7th. Oliver Myers, year 1870, 8th. Mr. Harris, 9th. Mr. Ruch, year 1900, 10th. Mr. Kunsman present owner paid $4,200.00, year 1919.

The oldest member when we organized the "Lerch Reunion," and contemplated to have it an annual affair, was the late Hon. Adam Lerch, Wernersville, Pa., who was instrumental in getting for us large quantity of important history, directly communicating with Revs. Schilling, Rohrbach and G. L. Lill, pastors of Langenselbold Gemeluschaft Protestant Church in Germany. It took the pastors one hour to look over the records and cost 3 marks or 75 cents and took three months to bring the letter back to Wernersville, Berks Co., Pa, He was the 5th Gen. from Kaspar who landed at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. fifth, 1738, along with Andreas and sons. That branch is as follows:

No. 1, Kaspar; No. 2, Nicholas; No. 3, John; No. 4, Daniel; No. 5, Adam. Kaspar was a member of aforesaid church in 1722. Records of that church trace Lerch's as far back as A. D. 1560, a period of 364 years. Evidently, of the two Johns that are recorded, one was Andreas' son and the other was Nicholas' son.

Anthony Lerch, Sr. born Sept. 20, 1720, died Aug. 28, 1793. On Dec. 1774, he became a member of the Northampton County Committee or Observation. In 1755, he hauled provisions to Fort Allen, Weissport, Pa. In 1761, he was elected County Commissioner. He married Anna Margaretha- some give it Lauer- and some say it was Larch.

Anthony, Sr., a cousin to the Kaspar branch whose biography is accurately traced from their birthplace in Germany. She was born March 17, 1728, died Feb. 14, 1796. Issue 10 children. Matrimonial partners namely: 2nd gen. all 10.

No. 1, John, born Oct. 17, 1747, died March 17, 1818, m- Sybilla Christina Morry, born June 24, 1752, died Dec. 30, 1818. No. 2, Anthony, Jr., Captain in the Revolution, born March 18, 1750, died April 21, 1798, m-1774, Anna Welsh, born 1752, died March 3, 1803. No. 3, Catherine Lerch, born March 8, 1752, m-Adam Beidleman. No. 4, Anna Margaret Lerch, born Dec. 31, 1754, died April 13, 1829, buried at Springfield Church, m-Geo. Errich, born April 21, 1751, died August 17, 1833. No. 5, Nicholas Lerch, born March 30, 1757. No. 6 (John) Frederick Lerch, born April 17, 1759, died August 1, 1826, m-Elizabeth Sweitzer, born June 18, 1761, died Dec. 6, 1838. No. 7, Anna Maria, born Feb. 2, 1762, died 1783, m-Peter Shimer, born Jan. 20, 1760, died Oct. 22, 1828. No. 8, Peter Lerch, born March 7, 1764, died February 24, 1813, m-Anna Margaret Riegel, born Aug. 15, 1765, died March 17, 1826. No. 9, Elizabeth Lerch, born Aug. 2, 1768, died Oct. 24, 1833, m-John Leidy, born March 9, 1764, died Sept. 16, 1846, had one son and two daughters. No. 10, Susanna Lerch, January 3, 1773. 3rd Gen. Peter Lerch was revolutionary soldier.

At Williams Tw's'p Church are records of a son of John Lerch and wife, Anna Maria, born 1740, baptized Feb. 10, 1740. Daughters Maria Magdalene, born June 17, baptized July 27, 1742 and Susanna, born October 13, baptized Nov. 17, 1747, were children of afore said couple. David and wife, Elenora Lerch. A son, born Feb. 2, baptized him Joseph, March 3, 1798. We learned through these records that they were good Christians. No nobles or rich, but hard working and ambitious. We owe a debt of gratitude to our Honorable President Adam Lerch, at the time of his demise, and though his labors are ended here, his work follows on. While we cherish his activities, and lasting benefits derived through him, we know he is resting in peace, and hath joined the Great Reunion, which knows no parting.

Poem, "Reward to the Faithful." Author Camilla H. H. Heckman. When words and works combine noble deeds, and love and mercy, each our regrets, This world will be with blessings filled, Though we depart our voice is stilled.

We call this Kaspar the 1st Gen. after which the Lewisburg Tw's'p, Pa., people trace their ancestry. His father was one of the John's who landed at Philadelphia with Anthony, his older brother, Sept. 16, 1738. Records show he married Margaret Frichensin in 1728 in Germany. Issue 3 sons: Ni Claus, b-Nov. 28, 1728; John, b-Sept. 29, 1731; John Christopher, b-Jan. 31, 1734. Sponsors at baptisms were the Town-Miller and an Aunt by the name of Stredler. From this origin, Caspar's branch recorded.

These are confidential records. Miss Josephine Lerch, great-granddaughter of this Kaspar Lerch, visited the old homestead at Hanan, Markobel, Langenselbold, and other places of interest in Germany before the 1914 World War. Kaspar was also a cousin to Andreas Lerch. History relates that Anthony had married Anna Margareta Lauer, an aunt to his father making his own children first cousins, something that was not unusual at that age, and under the conditions they had to live. Kaspar's sons, whom he brought along were aged ten, seven and 4 years old. A younger child is also mentioned.

History does not relate any thing of Andreas, or Kaspar's wives. Naturally, the female sex at that age was not regarded as prominent. They were more or less regarded as very inferior to the male sex. To have many children, and share the burdens of the family, that was all they were good for. Even as heirs, the sons ranked higher than the girls. Our present age may feel proud that things have changed, that female characters are recognized and receive honors due them, which is a rich blessing.

We do not have a record of Andreas burial place. Anthony, Sr. marks the beginning of our "History," on one part, and Kaspar for the other part.

Kaspar was well financed, records show, and he had a son 50 years younger. He was a resident of Oley Tw's'p, Bucks CD., Pa. In 1759, his tax was 6 shillings for 130 acres. Yost, his son, was a single man. William and Nicholas, his brothers, were taxed as landlords, half rate viz: 10 lbs. Yost was 21 years in 1759 showing he was born the same year they traveled to America. Andreas, 3rd, also owned real estate in Exeter Tw's'p near Reading, Pa., in 1785. It seems he was the delegate of Berks Co., Pa., to choose two (2) Brigadier-Generals at Lancaster, Pa., July 4th, 1776. They were 1st Col. Bird; 2nd, Patton; 3rd, Levan. Majors- 1st, Hiester; 2nd, Jones; 3rd, Lindamuth; 4th, Leopler. Captains 1st, Keim; 2nd, May; 3rd, Lien; 4th, Cremer; 5th, Lutz; 6th, Rice; 7th, Miller; Adjutant, just 1, Ely. Privates, 1st, Hartman; 2nd, Filbert; 3rd, Morgan;

Anthony Lerch's will. was probated Oct. 31st, 1793. Gratus Lerch's was probated Oct. 9th, 1794. John Lerch's, March 31st, 1818. John's, Jr., Jan 1886. All four are on record at Easton, Pa. See other pages.

Andrew Lerch conveyed a tract of land to Abraham Levan, from Berks Co., Pa., in 1800 about a mile south of Kreidersville, Northampton Co., Pa. It contained about 220 A. of the best wheat land, Oct. 2, 1800. In proprietary purchase money, Kaspar Lerch gave Pa., of 189 acres a deed to Christopher Lerch, for a farm in Heidelberg Tws'p. John Lerch of Bucks County, Pa., owned several tracts of land, and later also settled in Allen Tws'p, Northampton Co., Pa. George Lerch was of the Northampton Co. branch. He settled in Berks Co., Pa., and he died in 1873 in Reading. Pa. He had two sons, William and Daniel. The latter died in 1890, a partner of Bights and Lerch Hardware Dealers.

Of Kaspar No. 1, there are five generations, viz: 2nd, Nicholas; 3rd, John; 4th, Daniel; 5th, the late Honorable Adam Lerch.

No. 1, Kaspar Lerch settled at Tulpehocken Creek, Pa. This valley was noted for nice farms. This Kaspar was baptized Oct. 28, 1694 in the Church at Langenselbold, Germany. The record comes directly from Rev. Lilly, pastor there in 1924, and all notes since received as letters to this organization are copies of their Church Constitution. Sponsors were his Uncle and Aunt Lerch. On Jan. 12, 1724, he was married to Anna Margaret Frichsens. At night, Feb. 2, 1825 this couple baptized a little son named John Wm. Lerch. A single man named Fisher was sponsor, Feb. 2, 1726, they baptized a little daughter at their home that was very weak. Sponsors were Aunt Anna and parents. Tracing history in this country, it shows the oldest and three younger boys, viz: Nicalus, Daniel and Adam, came along but no girl.

Through thorough investigation, we could find them buried in this country. But sorry that their history is very scarce.

3rd, Gen., Hon. Adam Lerch, dec'd. was far a long time Notary Public, also surveyor at Wernersville, Berks Co., Pa. There must be some of the aforesaid generations in Northumberland Co., Pa., who rank high as progressive "citizens, leading useful lives, raising the standard of the community, by example and influence. He married Margaret Catherine Fulmer, daughter of Chas, of Turbotsville Tws'p, Northumberland So., Pa., born Oct. 28, 1842, died Sept. 11, 1902. Rev. Charles D. Lerch, for 20 years pastor of Ringtown Charge, died Saturday afternoon, Jan 2, 1934, at 3 o'clock at the parental homestead, where he had gone to regain his health. He had been granted a leave of absence by his congregation a week prior to his homegoing, which was caused by a heart condition. His health was affected by the untimely and tragic death, Oct. 23, 1915, when his wife was trapped in their overturned automobile and burned to death. Brother Lerch never quite recovered from this serious shock. (For the charges and where he studied, see another page.) Though they are summoned to higher habitations, Hon. Adam Lerch and Rev. Chas. D. Lerch, first cousins to each other, both very faithful members, of our Reunion, though absent, their "memory" will always be held dear in our hearts.

According to records of history, Anthony, one part of this big Lerch family tree, was an enthusiastic character. In religion and civic affairs going forward in an ambitious and zealous way instilling his genius to his descendants, and thus while his remains have been laid to rest, and his soul returned to "Him," who gave it, yet that predominance he has left gave his followers an example, noble, grand, and is as a bulwark, and beacon-light, respected and challenges the demonstration of the highest morals of a good and useful life.

AN EPITAPH IN HONOR OF ANTHONY LERCH, SR FATHER OF THE LERCH CLAN

When friend and friend each other meet, And loving hearts each greet. 'Tis sweet, and beautiful to see, Such happiness, should always be. But think awhile, do not forget, the labors of the ones who are dead. Their tasks were heavier than we know, Now, all is easier as we go. But one thing will remain the same; the "Heavenly Home" we wish to claim.

Camilla Heckman, Author.

Abel, born March 15, 1768 and died June 16, 1848. Also, David Kemmerer, born Jan. 9, 1775, died March 21, 1855. Anna Kemmerer, born Sept. 28, 1780, died Oct. 12, 1857. They are ancestors of Harvey E. Lerch, Easton, Pa.

The Lerch's were tall and well-built people, of a robust complexion, healthy and straight form, well fitted for army and hard work, and dark brown hair. It is really compulsive to use names in writing this biography of our Lerch's ancestors several times, as a guide to different trends that will recompose the Nummary, and Naturity, Chronology, Residences and Resting Places. The following item specifies the chronology and names in succession. Also, where some have resided, their occupations and their final resting place. The father of those sons who are honored as the progenitors of this worldwide history, is really the pillar of this great foundation, also proves the suavity and compassionate spirit to bring his family to a religious and peaceful place. As a custom at that time, males and children over 16 years were only registered at the shipping wharfs or Castle Garden as it was named. But tradition suffices that three boys aged 14, 12, and 10 respectively, and the mother accompanied them.

He was 50 years and died the same year in 1738. Most of those early settlers are buried at Lower Saucon graveyard, viz: Anthony, Sr., Peter, Sr. Gratus, Sr., Peter, Jr. and Tobias, Sr. Anthony, Sr. lived 2 miles south east of Freemansburg on a farm in Saucon Tws'p, Northampton Co., Pa. Some are resting on the Williams Tws'p church graveyard. Younger brother of Anthony, Sr., John, was the first general (generation?) in America. He lived in Allen Tws'p, Northampton Co. Pa. Is buried at Stone Church, Kreidersville, Pa.

SABINA LERCH FREIMAN BRANCH

It will be a delight to know the thorough and correct item relative to the many phrases stating that Sabina Lerch, older sister of Anthony, Sr., married to Geo. Freiman, instead of Freeman, which means a great difference in the vocable and still more in business, and that they had 4 children instead of no issue. A "will," when on record is a good guide to follow when writing history.

1st Gen., Sabina Lerch, born Feb. 7, 1710, in Loerch Dahl, Marko-bold, Germany, immigrated and landed in Philadelphia, Pa., died in America, April 16, 1802. She married Geo. Freiman (note her age) when he made his "will," in 1790 and was probated in 1812. Probably he died that year. He has no tombstone. The same year William lived there and managed that farm till death, a period of 49 years and 6 months. His wife preceded him in death by two years, he had two hired Single girls, viz: Sarah Ann, nee Lerch Beil and Henrietta nee Stuber Hackman. Nathan was the youngest of the four sons and was appointed executor in his father's will and also took for his share the farm and owned it till death, being in the Lerch name for 77 years. He operated the farm for three years but always lived at Schoenersville Church, 2nd brick house, which the progenitor of aforesaid place his father-in-law built in 1830, when he retired from the hotel business, The Blue Ball Tavern, which he had built in 1794. He followed the tailoring business, and governed the hotel, this being centrally located. He accommodated and sheltered the Conestoga wagons, merchants bringing the produce from Philadelphia, Pa., and distributing through the little country stores that were stationed far apart at that age. Four hundred acres he bought at that time, and it was all covered, nothing clear. It took him from 1784 to 1794 to cut the trees and get the logs by which he built the log cabin, viz: "Blue Tavern." He retired and moved to the brick house in 1839. One single daughter, Hannah Schoener, and youngest daughter, Mrs. Nathan Lerch and husband went with him where he lived. He died Oct. 28, 1849. Aged 85 years, 9 months, 28 days.

HOW A VILLAGE WAS FORMED

A few lines of history of the Progenitor or Schoenersville, Pa., and his family which is written from verbal statements which the writer obtained from her grandmother, the former's younger daughter, viz Mrs. Nathan Lerch.

Adam Schoener, born in Alsace, Germany, at an early age learned tailoring as his trade. He lived some time along the coast of the beautiful Rhine River. He was very successful and earned and also saved. So at the age of twenty-one, young men were compelled to train for military service and enter the militia when called. Being a man of short stature, he did not see himself capable to perform the duties required. Taking a large red bandana handkerchief, he tied a few pieces of clothing, his tailor tools, slipped away safely, and his cash took him to Castle Garden at Philadelphia, Pa., from whence he searched a place where he could follow the trade, and built a peaceful home and reared a respected family.

He often rehearsed his great success, and he never allowed anyone to be turned or go away without showing the best hospitality and giving when in need. He was born Dec. 31, 1763, came to this village in 1784. Ten years later after his house was finished, he married, 1794, Catherine Elizabeth Rimmel, born July 17, 1774. He died Oct. 25, 1840, 85 years, 9 months, 28 days. She died Dec. 26, 1839, 65 years, 5 months, 8 days. A sad coincidence, she died one day after her youngest daughter's wedding day.

The parents are resting on the old cemetery at the church, well-preserved boxlike tombstones along the south side fence toward the Bethlehem road. Issue, 7 children, viz: Anna Margretha Schoener, born, Oct. 14, 1796, married Henry Frankenfield. She died July 29, 1842. Buried at Allentown, Pa. They had children.

2nd. Louisa Schoener, born 1799 married Henry Reimer; 3rd, Abraham Schoener, born 1801, married Rebecca Dealt; 4th, Lydia Schoener, born 1803, married Henry Kurtz; 5th, Hannah Schoener, born 1804, unmarried. 6th, Thomas Schoener, born 1810, married in Monroe Co., Pa., unknown: 7th, Maria Catherine Schoener, born Aug. 20, 1815, died Dec. 30, 1893, 78 years, 4 months, 10 days, married Dec. 25, 1839.

4th Gen., Nathan Lerch, born Aug. 12, 1819, died April 22, 1896, 76 years, 8 months, 10 days. They were married by Rev. Jacob Christian Becker, Reformed pastor, and son, Rev. Cyrus

Jacob Becker, baptized, confirmed and married to the 3rd generation. This father and son Deckers covered a period of 150 years with 91 years at the Schoenersville-Howertown charge. Both were graduated at the age of 18 years. They were real spiritual physicians and unexcelled theological servant of the "Lord." They lived their life exemplifying what they preached, peaceful and amicable to all members of the union congregations. Their passing was mourned by many but one eulogy covers the many years of labors. "Well done! Blessed in the Lord, are the death of His Saints. Enter now into the Joy of the Lord."

Nathan Lerch and wife were educated in the German and English languages, which was a rare thing at that age. Both could write English very nicely and also speak it.

They celebrated their golden wedding Dec. 25, 1889. Rev J. C. Becker was the speaker and they enjoyed a good turkey dinner, with children and grandchildren. He never used tobacco. She was instructed in the English language by Samuel Siegfried, whose name is written in her schoolbook named "The English Emancipator." Mr. Lerch was a very good surveyor and had private lessons in law. He spent many an hour with the late Hon. Judge Harvey of the Lehigh Co., Pa., courts, and the Supt. of Public Schools, Mr. Rupp. He sold the lots where the homes are built that comprise this village of Schoenersville, Pa., and financed them, and helped even in the carpenter work. He financed Mr. E. R. Benner when he quit teaching, and went in the merchandise business, bought the stock and store and other buildings, from Richard Snyder. He financed several veteran schoolteachers for their furniture, and helped them, as they were always his next-door neighbors.

They were very generous in their family, and no one was turned away hungry. She was called Mommy Lerch in the community and her advice was sought by many who knew her. Many coming to church would take meals at her place before going home. The Lutheran ministers as well as the Reformed enjoyed her hospitality. Upon request by Rev. C. J. Becker, Reformed pastor, and Rev. A. R. Horne, Lutheran pastor, Mr. Lerch and Mr. John Mitman, cleared a long-standing debt of the church. To erect frames to build barns he was called to take the lead and he was a good judge and mechanic.

They were devout Christians, brought up their children that they were faithful to God, and also led their children in the same way. Mr. Lerch was a good vocalist and many years served the choir. Read his Bible regularly. He provided well for his family and his children and grandchildren are all devoted strictly to religious activities, sincerely following the hagiologist, thereby enabling them to leadership, and gold medals from higher denomination in Christian education. He influenced his descendants to fine morals, not slothful and sleazy, but an enthusiastic exemplar in all walks of life. Mrs. Lerch set Divine things first; this poem she taught her descendants: "Kirchen geh seimet nicht, Almosen geben armet nicht." In English: "Church going robs no time, giving alms will make none poor." They are buried in the old cemetery at the driveway, with nice red granite tombstones, the only red ones erected on the aforesaid burial ground. In Memoriam: "Sweetly rest in peace, thy reward hath come, Let thy labor cease, God hath called thee home." -Author C. H. H. H.

Issue 11 children; only 5 grew to maturity, viz: 5th Gen. Reuben H. Lerch, born June 12, 1842, died Jan. 1923, married A. M. Elizabeth Lazarus. Both are buried on the Mickley Cemetery, Pa. They were prosperous farmers in Whitehall Tws'p, Pa. He was one of the regular members of that church; nothing could make him miss the services. Their kind loving spirit was greatly admired, had many friends, their hospitality and good provisions were an outstanding solace for many. They attained a ripe old age. Issue 4 children. 6th Gen., William H. Lerch was married to Lydia Shafer, deceased. P. is manager of the Trojan Powder Farms for many years and his scientific methods in the producing of the farms products have won for him laurels and grand prizes for the farm. It is remarkable how well preserved they are at their age. Mrs. Ringer from her early years worked on the farm like a man. There is nothing that she did not work side by side with any man. As a housewife and cook, she is excellent. Both are interested in religions and civic affairs. They have a beautiful brick home at East Catasauqua, Pa., where they reside. Their three sons are following in the parents' footsteps, are progressive potato growers, and poultry raisers, and have faithful helpmates and fine children.

5th Gen., Sarah Ann Ellemanda Lerch, married Samuel Diehl.

They lived the greater part of their life on a farm north of Catasauqua, Pa. They were reckoned as leading people in religious and also in civic circles. They were financially well situated. Very liberal to the poor. And for cleanliness and having things in proper shape, they were in the first class. Both passed the three score years and ten, and are buried on the Howertown, Pa., cemetery. They had one sad affliction, only the 3rd child grew to mature age, and the mother had to follow them all to the grave; the surviving daughter six weeks after the husband. He was a public school teacher in her early years under Supt. Rupp's administration. Her father with her and son operated the old homestead farm, the two staying there but the father went evenings to his family at Schoenersville, until she married Mr. Hackman. Then they took charge of the farm and lived there twenty years till the death of the father. They were always hard working, often sacrificing self to do good to others, kindhearted to the children. The door was always open to charity and helping those in poorer circumstances. They served in religious and civic capacities, he as school director, deacon and elder at Christ Reformed church at Schoenersville till death. They were baptized, confirmed, and married and their children and some grandchildren were baptized and confirmed by the same Rev. Cyrus J. Becker. Mrs. Hackman served as choir member and as Sunday School teacher close to her end till health impeded. They are laid to rest in the new cemetery at Schoenersville, Pa., with nice red granite tombstones. "Thy lovely forms rest side by side, Free from Earth's tumult and the night. While we thy dear ones anxious wait, To meet Thee at the Heavenly Gate." Author, daughter, Camilla Heckman.

Issue, 6 children. viz: 6th Gen., Maggie Catherine Hackman, born July 6, 1873, died June 22, 1880, 8 years, 11 months, 10 days. 6th Gen., Camilla Harriet Hackman, born April 30, 1875, married Harvey Welcome Heckman, S. of V., born Dec. 4, 1871. While this family was brought up as farmers and spent many years operating their own farms, nevertheless, after retiring from the former he was engaged ill carpentering, painting and butchered hundreds of cattle for local people and his sausage went to California to be fried and eaten. He served as school director many years but resigned. In church work, always active, secretary in Sunday School, but for the last 47 years overseer. He was confirmed and married by the late Dr. A. R. Horne, Feb. 2, 1895. They celebrated their 25th or silver wedding on his 50th or golden birthday anniversary, thus were 3-5's dates linked. They observed their 45th anniversary, this time were 6 dates linked, born 1875, 51 years confirmed, 50 years Sunday School teacher, March 1895, 65 years of age and 45 years married.

Camilla was very fond of books and writing, as well as vocal and instrumental music, her teachers after being finished with the elementary courses urged her, and parents to mature, in educational lines. Being the oldest, and no boys on the big farm, they needed her. Acknowledging that she was endowed with kind parents, she resolved she would cultivate what she had, if no public school teacher, she would study the Bible along with her home work and be a Sunday School teacher. Today she does firmly acclaim that Matt. 6th 33 v. suffices, viz: "Seek ye the first the Kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added unto you." These 3 chapters "Sermon on the Mount." she memorized when a young girl, received a present from the Sunday School. She started to teach a class in German, taught twenty-two years, and twenty-eight years in English. Every place attended, while living there she was elected as a teacher, and also Bible School through the week time. Gave recitals at churches to buy a window in honor of her class Schoenersville S. S. room. Contributed two large windows in the main auditorium. When the church was remodeled in 1927, she also collected to improve the old cemetery, and in 1905 gave $10.00 to modernize the S. S. room and $10.00 to the present steeple. She served on different church choirs for 17 years.

As Supt., she organized the first cradle roll, Jan. 1, 1916, but after a few years resigned. She organized the first sewing circle of No. 1798 Hanover Grange. A past president of Camp 273, P. O. of A. She was appointed as delegate from Lehigh and Northampton Co. by the Sabbath School Association to attend the convention at Williamsport, Pa., and received gold medal there Oct. 13, 1939. She has also received her certificate as Teacher Emeritus. She is affiliated with the Missionary Society of the historic Reformed church and the Auxiliary of the Phoebe Home at Allentown, Pa.

In 1920, she organized the "Lerch Reunion," elected secretary ever since and in 1941 also elected historian. She took several trips abroad, through the western states and through the south as far as Cuba and Caribbean Sea. Besides doing her duties on the farms, she wallpapered for 20 years. Huckstered 19 years and did lots of sewing at home and for other people, also assisting in butchering for other people for 41 years. She has written and composed many poems while engaged by the Hierographic Syndicate, Texas. She tries to keep her home and yard decent at Schoenersville, Pa., and is a great flower woman, and loves to share and decorate other places, with what God so kindly entrusts to her. She was baptized and confirmed by the late Rev. C. J. Becker, Reformed, at the Schoenersville church. She is a regular attendant in God's house on the Lords day. If not at her church and Sunday school, she attends several sessions in the city. Her Reformed service at home is only missed in case of sickness or when she is invited as a speaker at special Sunday School anniversaries. She strictly abstains from profane language, dancing and gambling. Naturally intruders snicker and place thorns for her flowers, but she does not bother with ignorant fumbler. In choosing companions, she considers quality and not quantity. Her favorite poem: In life the greatest victory won, with little said and plenty done.

In 1920, she entered the Shippensburg, Cumberland Valley Teachers College, to finish her regular course and specialized in music. She passed successfully and was honored as one of Lehigh County's first class teachers and elected as a grade teacher at Egypt, Whitehall Tws'p, Pa.

The following year she was elected by the Schoenersville school board and taught successfully. She resigned when she entered into matrimony with Edward E. Schneck, born May 18, 1902, an official of the Allentown National Bank. Later when his father retired, he visioned a better income by operating his father's farms, and his demonstrations were very copious. After leaving the farm he moved to Weaversville, Pa., attended the Howertown church with the same pastor. He worked in store again and lived some time in his hometown. W. P. Lerch was a self made man, in all respects, sacrificing for others till his life ebbed away so unexpectedly, leaving places vacant that are hard to be filled. Always willing under many hindrances which few only realized, always cheerful, never complaining, but going, rather than lay burdens on others he carried them. He resided with his parents and attended the public schools at the former places, graduated from the elementary school at Northampton, Pa., and from the Coplay High School in 1897. He worked in a grocery store, then he learned the bakers trade, worked for A. P. C. C. company. He was a devout Christian man. SPELLING THE LERCH NAME

There had been some dispute in the Lerch name early tradition relates. Benjamin Franklin wrote the name Lark in 1756. Anthony Lerch wrote it from 1750 to 1760, Lergh, Lark, Larch, Lerck. The names of Peter and Andres were written by English clerks Lerick. But at the Moravian Theological Seminary, it was decided to spell it "Lerch" and remained permanent to present time.

1st son of Anthony Lerch, Sr., John, escaped the Indians' attack.

A ghastly experience had John No. 1 and his wife and three children; William, Nicholas and Yost, with seventy other persons, when they sought refuge in the Friedensville mill and stockade near Nazareth, Northampton Co., Pa., from a gruesome raid of savage Indians in Jan. 1756. Son William's name appears in the Lower Saucon Church records in 1750. Listed as passengers on the ship Queen Elizabeth-also recorded in the archives of the Sec. of state at Harrisburg, Pa., are Andreas or (Andrew) 12 years. Peter 13 years, Anthony, Jr., 14 years. This Peter died as husband of 2nd wife at the age of 36 years at Lower Saucon, Northampton Co., Pa., in 1762. Items given on another page. 1st Gen., Gratius Lerch, immigrant from Germany, 1738, made his will on June 5, 1794. Exhibited on Sept. 9, 1794, dilucidating death. William Lerch, 44 years, Nicholas and wife and Yost are 3 of the 17 children named in Casper Lerch's will in 1784. Yost lived in Heidelberg Tws'p, Pa., in 1759 to 1806.

William Lerch with wife and 3 children lived in Northampton Co., Pa., in 1740 to 1760. The name spelled Lerch also in Berks and in Reading, Pa., records in 1759. Andreas Lerch and sons, Anthony, Peter and Gratius came to Saucon Creek, Northampton Co., Pa., in 1738. In 1739 Caspar Lerch also with said party went to Tulpehocken Creek, Berks, Co., Pa. In another column are recorded Caspar's Descendants and their success. Anthony Lerch, Sr., immigrant stayed at Lower Saucon, Pa., but his oldest son John Lerch at an early date habitated Allen Tws'p, Pa. He was appointed first General of America in 1770. This is generation No. 2. Not the one who escaped the Indians. This one married Sibilla Morry, and is the ancestral point 2nd to Anthony Lerch of Allen Tws'p, Northampton, Co., Pa. Lerch "Branch." and are buried at Stone Church, Kreidersville, Pa. Names and dates accurately given on another page.

Testaments and executors names of Lerch's Testator. 1766 Kaspar Larich, Exec. Christopher Larich, Tes. 1774 Baltzer Lerch, Exec. Wm. Lerch and Johann Staut, Tes. 1817, Anna Barbara wife of Baltzar Lerch, Exec. Peter Amaand, Tes. 1824, Rosina Lerch, wife of Yost, Exec. Matthias Richards, Tes., 1841, John Lerch, Exec. Jacob Lerch, Tes. 1857, David Lerch, Exec. John Teppler, Tes. 1867, Jacob Lerch, Exec. Geo. Last Tes. 1868, David Lerch, Exec. John Adam Dechert, Tec. 1872, David B. Lerch, Exec. Tyrus Lerch-Israel Noecher, Tec., 1873, George Lerch, Exec. Daniel and Wm. Lerch. He is 4th Gen., from Anthony Lerch, Sr., born in N. J. A hardware merchant in Reading, Pa., Another Casper Lerch was the 4th listed on ship. 44 years. Died, 1766, aged 72 years.

Casper Lerch's children who were named in his "will" propriety warrant that bears date Dec. 2, 1742, of 180 acres in Heidelberg, Pa., are William Lerch, Nicholas, Balzer, Christopher, Jacob, Yost, Elisabeth Margaret, Catherine, Rachel Lerch, his son Christopher the executor. After making certain bequests to his wife Margaret, he bequested to each of his children 25 lbs. except to Christopher who had purchased the old homestead Sept. 9, 1766 at a consideration of 225 lbs: Most of the Lerch's in Berks Co., Pa., are his descendants except those of George Lerch who died in 1873. No records show William Lerch, born 1750, son of Gratius, as a real estate owner. Nicholas Lerch in Heidelberg Tws'p, Pa., consisted of a farm of 232 Acres. He had one son John and 3 daughters. Names on another page. His wife Rosina was administratrix.

Baltzer Lerch's will dated Jan. 1, 1774, had Johannes Staut executor. The number of children is not mentioned, but all were under 14 years of age. In Rupp's collection, there are 30,000 Lerches. One John Jacob Lerch landed on Oct. 11, 1752. Casper, Nicholas, Baltzer, and Christopher Lerch all died in Berks Co., Pa., Andrew (Andreas) 2nd Gen. deed of real estate on record from 1740 to 1785 in Exeter Tws'p, Pa., courthouse is at Reading, Pa. There is no doubt that Casper, John, Andreas, Peter, Anthony and Gratius Lerch, all born in Germany, immigrated on Queen Elizabeth, landed at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 16, 1738 were close relatives.

THE TWO JOHN LERCH'S LAND AT ONE PLACE, THEN SEPARATE

The two John Lerchs that landed at Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 16th, 1738 although abiding some time at Lower Saucon, Pa., took course in different directions one going north to Allen Tws'p, Pa., the other toward Reading, Berks Co., Pa, according to Williams Tws'p church record. One worshipped there and his children consecrated in baptism. No matter where they settled they worked hard and owned farms, according to census, cared and saved for their children. Williams Tws'p church records show these baptisms viz: 1st son of John and Anna Maria Lerch, born 1740, baptized Feb. 10, 1740. 2nd daughter of John and Anna Maria Lerch, born May 17, baptized June 27, 1742. 3rd, Susanna, daughter of John and Anna Maria Lerch, born Oct. 13, baptized Oct. 17, 1747.

Also, the family of David Lerch is recorded. One son David and wife, Ellennora, nee Jones, Lerch, born Feb. 21, baptized March 3, 1798. 1st Gen., Gratus Lerch, born Sept. 11, 1727, died Dec. 9, 1790, married Anna Maria Bahl, born Oct. 1727. 2nd Gen., Tobias Lerch, born March 5, 1781, died June 6, 1796, married Margaret Hess. 3rd Gen., Joseph Lerch, born Aug. 29, 1794, died Jan. 19, 1865, married Dec. 16, 1817, Susan Oberly, lived in Lower Saucon Northampton County, Pa. Gernet, born Feb. 22, 1859, died Sept. 11 1939, married Hiram Laubach. Issue 2 children. 6th Gen., Laura M. Laubach, born June 17, 1888, married Walbert Best. Issue 2 children. 7th Gen., Helen E. In the two families (Best and Laubach) we can gratefully say, they have been pillars, to uphold our reunion. Under all conditions, they have done what they could. Mrs. Best gave her service until compelled to quit on account of sickness in her family. Rev. George J. Laubach with his faithful wife were the loyal friends, when conditions were almost impossible to be there. His prayers are very impressive, other remarks and addresses were very beneficent and have won for him hosts of true friends, 4th Gen. Brothers and sisters of Livinia L.: 4th Gen., Tobias L., born 1820; Jos. L., born June 1, 1821; Eliza L., born April 17, 1824; Reuben L., born Dec. 12, 1825; Franklin L., born Oct. 8, 1828; Anna Maria L., born Nov. 1831; Martin O. L., born July 29, 1833.

Mrs. Laubach's presence is always desired her readings cheer and keep awake the young and the old, and their pleasant personality is admired in the social discourse,

May the Lord bless them in the future with health and strength to fulfill their subservient missions. Their only son George, a graduate of Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., is an efficient medical student at Philadelphia, Pa. He was always respectable, and favorable with the young and old. His ability and conduct will make him a successful man in his profession. Rev. George J. Laubach is pastor of three congregations, St. Peter's at Seemsville, Pa.; St. John's, Howertown, Pa., and Christ's Union at Schoenersville, Pa. A very busy couple helping in all activities. For many years they worked and the opposite wing enjoys their company as well as their own denomination. One significant point is that the Laubachs and Lerchs came with each other to America.

A POEM OF RESPECT TO OUR FAITHFUL HELPERS

Hearts that are filled with Divine love,
Always treasure the gifts from above.
Kindness and peace is the zeal of devotion.
Without pride or exalted commotion.
Not only the words, but also the actions do prove,
As they in the midst of councils do move.
Resembling the rose whose fragrance is told, As soon as its leaves unfold.
Not only waiting the time of receiving,
But give the flowers while people are living.

1st Gen., Anthony Lerch, Sr., is the ancestral point of this noted family. They have been faithful in their calls in life in many ways. Religiously and in civic affairs, as good vocalists and also instrumental music, with which this family is gifted. He aided us in our association, served as president, and with his faithful companionship, and sad loss was felt at his sudden, unexpected departure. When the writer was appointed and elected to write the Lerch history book she tried to coincide and through newspapers in many states, begging for their family history of their closest kin, thus enabling the writer to bring out the generations and co-equal all systematically, not to disaffect or cause deception when finished. This is the answer: No History, No Record.

Mr. Lerch and his five children have given us fine sextet selections at our reunions. Not only can they fill the vocal parts, but also handle the instruments. Thus, we can systemize two phrases vertical, "A good tree beareth good fruit" and "train a child in the way that it shall go, and it shall not depart from it." The following is the run of the generations, from the immigrant, to the present time. Representing only males.

This branch is scattered over Lehigh, Northampton, Carbon, and Monroe counties. Were always reliable and ready to aid this Association. Under all conditions, they would spend the whole day and the writer is often sorry that they were called to their eternal rest so soon. They contemplated volitive co-operation and were very much concerned that their descendants should continue these gatherings and support them after they were departed. They served as officers and always brought their meals and had nice tables spread as is customary among the Lerchs Freund-Schaft. This record was not difficult to trace. Mr. Willis Angler gave a fine sketch, tracing only the first and second ancestors. He and his family and this whole branch always had this as their motto, "What you do, do with your might, things done by half are never done right."

Included in the Allen Tws'p Pa., Branch, 1st, General (generation?) John Lerch in America 1770. This is one of the largest and also includes noted characters as leaders of state, also some very aged people, who even at the age of 80 years, Mrs. Jonas Heiney has assisted her daughter Florence, both of Allentown, Pa., to gather these many notes and set up so interesting a memorial to the "Lerch Clan" as long as they live. With willing minds, hearts and hands, labor is sweet and honorable. To gather history and dates and names of a period of 277 years and scattered from Germany to America, all over the U. S. A. amongst 30,000 registered Lerch's is no easy task, and as in all cases, the most diligent ones have the best results. The writer cannot go on without acknowledging now and then a word of praise to the good members of this "Lerch Family" who have aided from California, the Carolinas and more than a score of the states of the Union.

Today we sow, but others reap,
These "Items," they will love to keep.
Those "Ancient Notes" are very "Grand,"
But no more Notes from the "Father-Land."

He was a self-made man, very industrious, bright and cheerful, well liked in organizations, agreeable and practicing a good moral life, devoted to his family, rearing them, sharing with them through all conditions, enabling them to gain the higher standards of life, in education and other valuable emissions, becoming a ware of our appointment of a meeting to pay tribute to our ancestors and learn to know each other, and associate in Jove and harmony. He brought his whole family, that he truly loved, to share the pleasant time with him that day, which was one of his main anticipations ever since. His was a heart-felt greeting, which his wife and their children have inherited and are imitating in their daily lives. He was on the first executive board, had the most of a family present, and most regular attendance. In early life, he taught school in the township. From 1920 to 1942, the Context of the activities of the Lerch "Reunions," Looking back twenty-two years of actual serving the Lerch family at Reunions, the secretary feels that a great work was accomplished. For twenty-one consecutive years, not one Reunion was postponed. Thus far, though many have gone to their reward whose absence we keenly feel, we know what "God," doeth is well. We will submit to his Holy Will. Where vacancies were suffered, others have come and helped along. Therefore, we will always bow to Him, be grateful for His unceasing protection, be faithful, in our weakness, look to Him for strength imitating our early ancestors, to whom today we pay respect after 204 years have passed.

Though many things changed, we delight that their same Divine Leader is still leading on. Generations after generations pass away, but the green fields, the blue sky, as well as the beautiful sunshine illuminates our sphere, lightens our way, and the beautiful moon, and the glittering stars are still located above us, reminding us that the signs are still the same, as in the age when our first settlers made if possible, through their influence, we are what we are.

Therefore, it is our duty to offer gratitude. After being urged constantly by relatives and friends of the Lerchs, that I should organize a gathering and start a "Lerch Reunion," I considered the matter thoroughly. First, thinking where our ancestors came from? Second, what kind of people they were? Third, and where they located? After learning that it dawned upon me, that we really should be thankful, and they should be remembered and honored. Finally, I felt it my pleasant duty to go forward, fully confident that what a conscience dictates, should be done. Now came the question how? Naturally without trying, I cannot find out. I called up Mr. Graham, manager of Central Park, Rittersville, Pa., whether that place was available for a gathering on Sept. 3rd, 1920. He answered "yes." His courtesy was remarkable, and this brought encouragement. But how shall we know each other? All was silent, but something prompted me.

T'was 10 P. M., Saturday, Aug. 26th, 1920. I took my pen and paper and wrote to The Allentown Morning Call, The Bethlehem Globe, The Easton Daily Express, Philadelphia Record, adding neighboring papers please copy, these notes: "All descendants of Andreas Lerch who emigrated from the Palatinate Germany to Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 16th, 1738, shall please meet Sept. 3rd, 1920, at Central Park, Rittersville, near Allentown, Pa., at 2 P. M. All Lerch's please wear as an insignia, or emblem, a small white bow on dress or coat lapel." "A True Poem."

The little white bow, we shall not forget,

For some wore it, on Monday yet.

The day was clearing, a shower passed at noon. At the park was no rain, and an unexpected large crowd was there. From Tinicum, Bucks County, Pa., Monroe, Carbon, Lehigh, and Northampton Counties, Pa., as well as some other close friends, were all very well represented. Hon. Clinton Lerch, Justice of Peace, Deacon of Reformed Church (see issue of his valuable life he lived on another page), Tinicum, Pa., brought the largest family. A daughter, now Hilda Allem Hewitt, served as pianist. She played from memory, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again.." The late Wm. P. Lerch presided as chairman. I recited Harbaugh's "Heimweh," a Pennsylvania German poem, as a small program, then followed the business session. I took the minutes and ever since secretary, to this date July 20, 1942. Henry Lerch, Easton, was elected president. Milton T. Lerch, of Bethlehem, Pa., treasurer. Both kept their offices till death severed them in May 10th and 31st respectively, a sad loss. They all enjoyed themselves so much and were so interested in the matter that they forgot to remove the little white bow, and wore it going to places Monday's yet. Minutes of the Sept. 3, 1920, at Central Park, Pa. Activities just mentioned. We may add the 5-minute speakers called were: Ida Lerch Hackman, Martha Lerch Schell, Clinton S. Lerch, three former school teachers, Henry Lerch, an ex-deeds recorder in Easton Court House, Ezra and Herman Lerch, of Tincum, Pa."

The first officials were President, Henry Lerch, Easton, Pa.; Vice President, Stuart Lerch, Hellertown, Pa.; Secretary, Camilla H. H. Heckman, Schoenersville, Pa.; Treasurer, Milton Lerch, Bethlehem, Pa.; Historian, Wm. P. Lerch, Northampton, Pa.

Executive Committee: Howard K. Clemens, Asher C., Robert H., Hower C., Jas. S., Clinton, Oliver W., these are all Lerch's and Frank Cernet. At this writing, July, 1942, only four survive. Saturday before Labor Day was decided to have our Reunions for quite a time. 1921 we met at Central Park at Rittersville, Pa. 1922, 1923, at Oakland Park, Pa. 1924-25-26, at Dorney Park near Allentown, Pa. These years the Monroe Co., the Tincum, Berks Co., Philadelphia and New York, and even Northampton and Lehigh Co. Lerches' were in their best years, and we enjoyed a very good attendance. We had no deaths, and no unfavorable weather, no depression. There were never disagreements, nor contrariness existing, and the officers left their seats when called by death, to join the Greater Reunion.

We all sadly felt the loss sustained when our faithful members were called away, seeming only a short time that we learned to know them.

The oldest couple first recorded at our 1921 Reunion, was: Reuben H. and his wife Betsy (Elizabeth) L. Lerch, Mechanicsville, Pa. We were looking into the future with a sincere geniality, but none would know the outcome? but trust in "God", He will show, and as these lines are written, the writer feels "Divine and Kind Providence", has palled the way for twenty-two years, with no day too inclement that we had to postpone it. Has kept, and protected us from unusual sorrows and misfortunes, providing with "His" power the means that gave us unmeasured goodness, in all past endeavors. And I as secretary and historian in honor of this large clan, with many years of service will not cease thanking, and be faithful in my weakness to uphold "Him", and cherish with gratitude all co-workers and friends of this clan, along with the kind acts, and the "Dear Lord", for His blessings and protection over us all.

"A POEM OF LOVE"

"Yes truly 'Lord', we love Thy way, and try to do what Thou wilt say. For Thou can keep us in Thine arms so free and safe from all alarms, Till we no more on Earth may roam, but are summoned to the 'Reunion' above."

With the 3rd, that was in 1922, at Oakland near Bethlehem, Pa., and we had a nice program, prizes and the two new cousins, Hon. Adam Lerch, Justice of the Peace and Surveyor, of Wernersville, Berks County, Pa., and Rev. Charles D. Lerch, of Ringtown, Schuylkill Co., Pa., were present for the first time, with their broad smiles and cheering words, were good helpers and eloquent speakers. It was such a beautiful day and the program was rendered so perfectly. Pres., Nelson Newhard of Bethlehem, Pa., with his talented four Children, wife, and mother, had the Kitchen Band performance, with loud laughter, and applause, it proved that all enjoyed it to the fullest extent. Rev. George J. Laubach, Easton, R3, Pa., one of the pillars yet gave the Invocation. Adam Lerch gave the Response. Three hundred registered. Rev. C. D. Lerch, address of welcome. A fine group photograph was taken. As we look upon their faces, it reminds us of the zealous and faithful workers and sincere friends. The others on the program were Catherine Weaver, Edith Fehr. Mr. N. Newhard at the piano. The hymns were: "Come Thou Almighty King," "Don't Step There" and "Abide With Us." The oldest were Mrs. Reuben

Lerch and Mrs. Riegel; the youngest, Ruth Odenwelder, Shoenersville, Pa, The farthest comer was Claire Lerch, Jersey Shore, Lycoming County, Pa. Benediction by Rev. George J. Laubach. No obituaries for three years. Contests, games, Social intercourse completed the day. Respectfully submitted, Camilla Heckman, secretary.

Again at Oakland Park, Sept. 1st, 1923. Nearly all was the same as previous year. The same hymns, Merrit Brown gave the Response, Miss Louise Lerch accompanied by her sister from Allentown, Pa., rendered vocal selections. She has served since in the Great Operas at New York. Also, Mr. Granville Shupp accompanied by his wife were highly complimented. The income was $47.03, we had $6.03 to start our bank account at Bethlehem, Pa. Obituary, Sarah Ann Lerch Beil.

Not much difference was made in the 4th. Held at Central Park, Aug. 30, 1924. Same officials and executive committee, program participators, games and contests, good attendance and very good eats. Mrs. Lizzie Bauman and sister Mary Hay, were the coffee committee, from Easton, Pa. All the committee responded, O. K. Fine day, all was declared a perfect success. Old officers unanimously elected and decided to meet next year. It was sad to note the obituaries out of one family the two sisters, Sarah in 1923, and 1924 Ida Louisa Alice Lerch Hackman. The secretary's mother, whose absence was keenly felt, and Reuben Henry Lerch, also uncle and aunts of the Historian Wm. P. L. Camilla H. H. Hackman, secretary.

The 5th. Lerch Reunion, Saturday, Sept. 5, 1925, with an increased number present, at Dorney Park Fine day, with smiles and greetings, renewed each one's zeal to work harder to keep it growing. Going through the same routine of business and games, and eating a hearty meal in the beautiful Orange Pavilion with its rippling waters and fragrant flowers, created a relaxed spirit within us that we felt many years younger, while we played and joined the ranks of sports and contests, which is always a source of merriment and laughter. The Clan is still increasing, and the youths and maidens help and aid us in so many ways finally implanting in them a desire to continue, when the seniors are called to their reward. At 2 P.M., the meeting was called to order. Opening hymn, "Faith of Our Fathers." Invocation, Rev. Charles D. Lerch. Address of Welcome, Rev. George J. Laubach. Response, Hon. Adam Gearhart Lerch, telling the origin of the Lerch name and how he wrote to Germany to obtain the history and records, that are printed in this Volume. The Legion Poem, relating to important facts, was sold that day, the income to replenish the treasury, and was welcomed by members, 100 at 10c were sold. Recitation "Poor Grandma," Verna Lerch. Piano Quartet, "Valse Lorraine", Edmond Missa, by Margaret, Grethen, Harold, Nelson Newhard, Jr. Mr. Nelson Newhard, Sr., at the piano. National hymn, "America, the Beautiful." Business session. Reading of the minutes by secretary. All officers and executive committee re-elected. Same place and date for next Reunion. Prizes given as usual. Remarks, 5-minute addresses by new comers. Plans and ideas for the up-building of the meetings. Historian's address. Mr. Wm. P. Lerch. Recitation, "Mr. Brown Gets a Hair Cut," by Mrs. Wilbert Best. There was again some savings for the bank. Closing hymn, "Lord Dismiss Us With Thy Blessing." Benediction, Rev. C. D. Lerch.

The Sixth Annual "Reunion," was held at Dorney Park, Sept. 4th, 1926. They arrived very early and had a nice social time before the program. The day was not so clear, but there was sunshine in the hearts. Several hundred had congregated, and a pleasant day was spent. Promptly at 2 P.M., the President Henry Lerch called the meeting to order. Miss Margaret L. Newhard at the piano. This was the first time the Opening Hymn composed by the secretary was used. (Tune "America.")

OPENING HYMN (TUNE "AMERICA")

Composed in honor of the Lerch Reunion by the Originator and Secretary for seven successive years, Mrs. Camilla H. Heckman.

*Thank God we meet again, Members of Lerch'es clan, In joyful praise.
We surely love this day, Reunion hold its way,
And come from far away, To join the throng.*

*From the Pal-a-ti-nate, Of Germany He came, Andres and sons.
In Seventeen Thirty-eight, September Sixteenth Date,
Now see what we have made, To honor Him.*

*Though different names we bear, In Lerch we own a share, And ne'er forget.
Descendants multiply, This great name will defy,
And always stand close by, Reunion Day.*

*Enthusiasm fills, Each heart and how it thrills, Drear Dwine it kills.
For none will leave this day, Forever fade away,
Recruit all will say, Lift Lerch Flag high.*

*As clan we'll firm remain, In this world's broad domain, Till called above.
In union there to meet, Departed friends to greet,
Worship at Jesus feet, In final peace.*

Invocation, Rev. Chas. D. Lerch. Address of welcome, Rev. Geo. J. Laubach. Response, Rev. C. D. Lerch. Quartet, Margaret, Gretchen, Harold and Nelson Newhard, Jr. Vocal selection by Mrs. VV. A. Lerch, accompanied by Helen Siegfried. Address by Robert Lerch, Easton, R. 2. Recitation by Edith Fehr. Piano duet, Miriam and Dorothy Hess. It was decided to set a permanent date and ask a year ahead, so as to announce it at the gathering before they would disperse. That proved a great success. Our date was taken Aug. 6, 1927 and we had to take Aug. 27 and it brought some unsuitable circumstances. Some origin poems were sold and added cash to the treasury printing programs, badges, stationery, $12.50. Prize for youngest child, 1 spoon, 69c. Oldest person, $1.00 to Isabella Riegel, Bethlehem, Pa, $1.00 to the farthest comer. Bill for contest prizes, $4.20. Bills amounted to $19.64 and income $33.56. Net profit, $13.92. These are profits of a rainy day, what will nice weather bring?

Seventh Annual Reunion at Saucon Park, Pa., Aug. 20, 1927. As this is the vacation month, the regular pastors were absent, but our good treasurer soon had Rev. Wm. Erb, Hellertown, Pa., who brought us an able message, which all appreciated. Opening hymn, "Thank God we meet again." The same officers as 1926 participated. Same on program. A fine day, a good attendance, and co-operation, the park was a gorgeous display of flowers, and the cool stream is unexcelled. The program was O. K. We had rented a piano for the day. We presented a dime to all under 10 years of age. These are the notes of each program circular: If you have any talent kindly make it known to president or secretary and they will see to it that you will take part on the program next year. Be sure to register if you expect to receive an invitation card next year. Try to help the secretary to get the addresses of all the Lerchs. Get Together. Shake Hands. Get Acquainted.

Eighth Annual Lerch Reunion at Dorney Park, Pa., Saturday, July 28, 1928. It was a nice day, large gathering, results were remarkable. It proved the zeal carried out of an ambitious clan, building a life history that will not decay in ages to come, but live in honor of our ancestors whom we reverence through our feeble efforts. The officers were all present, an encouraging asset in any organization. At 2 P.M., the president opened the meeting by singing "Thank God We Meet Again." Margaret Newhard at the piano. Invocation, Rev. Chas. D. Lerch. Address of welcome, Rev. George J. Laubach. Response, Allam G. Lerch. Vocal solo, Ella Mae Fehr, sister Edith accompanied on piano. The clan was furnished free coffee, Mary Lerch Hay, Easton, Pa., committee.

The following was about the run of the expenses and income for the years before depression, which came at the same time that so many seniors also passed away. These few lines the writer adds as an idea how things changed in a few years, making it a bit harder to hold up the financial part by the secretary and treasurer when prices were soaring and the attendance was less, and work and wages less, always trying to keep the dark side of the cloud hidden, doing many things the most economical way. But not depriving anyone else of the pleasures, enjoyed at these reunions. Always anticipating to have one day this volume of history, it meant not all roses, but many thorns and much sprinkling to keep the plants thriving. The main thing was to keep that saving account together. We were very agreeable as officers and committees when the challenge came, but we had to be very alert and economical, and deny ourselves to save the hank account for cash to print this history. Much begging and writing to members and friends, many nights' sleep was sacrificed to bring this longed for project to an end. But the same ones who stuck together have their wishes granted, feel so glad that they are able to give this loyal treat to cousins and friends that their weariness is thrown into the sea of forgetfulness.

Expenses, viz: For prizes altogether-$5.89. Five lbs. coffee, cream, and sugar, $3.30. Sec. Supplies, stationery, and postage, 50 cents. For printing programs, $2 50, invitation cards also, $2.50. $7.50 to president. Donations to children under 10 years, $3.50. Total expenses, $20.69. Income by selling badges, $3.50. Offering lifted, $24.00. Total income minus expenses, $6.81. Closing Hymn: "God be with you till we meet again." Obituaries, Claude Samuels, Stephen Koehler, Mary Lerch, Anthony, and Delia R. Lerch. Names of contest winners: Peanut scramble, Ruth Odenwelder; balloon bursting, June and Mahlin Lerch; whistling, Paul and Marion Lerch; baby carrying, Stella Kindt, W. C. Best; solving puzzle, Mary Koehler, Mahlon Lerch: throwing handkerchief, Stella Kindt, Homer Lerch. Thanks to all who helped to make this meeting a pleasant success. Contest committee, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Odenwelder, Annie Lerch, Wm. F. and Russel Lerch, Stanley Reinhard, Paul and Marion Lerch and Willis Engler. Respectfully submitted, Camilla H. H. Heckman, Sec. The Ninth Annual Reunion of the Lerch family at Dorney Park, Saturday, July 27, 1929. A very beautiful day, the attendance excelled all former reunions. At 2 P.M., the president called the meeting to order. All officers were present. Opening hymn. Invocation, Rev. Charles D. Lerch. Rev. Geo. J. Laubach absent on account of sickness in family. Rev. C. We miss them but why shall we mourn, when from earth's sorrow they forever depart, Hushed be your sorrow, their joy is unspoken, our friends departure unto us be a token of the wisdom of Him who doeth all for the best, Why sorrow for those in the abode of the blest. - Camilla H. H. Heckman, Sec.

The Tenth Annual Reunion was held at Dorney Park, Pa., July 26th, 1930. Through sickness the regular pastor, Rev. George J. Laubach could not be present. Otherwise, a nice program was enjoyed. This was the first time we had rain and hailstones while the contest was in progress, but it was soon over. A. S. Kleppinger of Macungie, Pa., 84 years, was our guest and was very much interested in reunions and also in printing histories. We had a Very large attendance. It was encouraging to have the whole families present, the proper way to teach them, later they know how to continue. There were seven counties represented. Obituaries: Milton C. Lerch, Florence, Lillie J., Elmira, Clarence, Wm. H. Lerch, Francis Engler, Isabella L. Riegel, Clarence Wertman.

Whole amount in bank, $100.00. Old officers re-elected. Closing hymn, "God be with you till we meet again." Benediction, Rev. C. D. Lerch. Our obituary list increased, we feel sorry that so many sweet voices are hushed, and we miss the pleasant faces and friendly greetings. Death Reaper not dilly took ripe fruits, but also young and tiny blossoms along its way. "But, God doeth all things well."

The Twelfth Annual Lerch Reunion was held at Dorney Park, Pa., July 30, 1932: A beautiful day, every one in the best spirits, comments were heard about the good program and many attended from near and far. New Lerch's were added to the records for the first time. Officers were all present. Hon. Adam Lerch, 83 years, presented many interesting points recorded in the "History," telling that in 1933 the history book would be made and outlined some sketches how they would appear. But as the saying goes: "After the brightest sunshine, form the darkest clouds." This was the last year for him and three other foremost officers noted in 1932 minutes. The secretary, feeling that the opening saved trouble to search for hymns at reunion time, composed a closing hymn, used the first time today. Daniel Lerch of Walnut street, Allentown, Pa., had requested the secretary to present "Heemweh lied," by Henry Harbaugh, Penna. German, at the 1933 reunion. The request was carried out, but sad to say Mr. Lerch was called to the greater reunion. The meeting was called to order by the president, Henry Lerch. Reg. Hymn, Gretchen Newhard, pianist. Invocation, Rev. Geo. J. Laubach. Response, Rev. Chas. D. Lerch. Requested number, "Heemweh Lied" (by Henry Harbaugh) by Secretary. Pantomime and vocal music, Ruth Odenwelder and brother Warren, Dorothea and Alfred Gogle, Martha Saylor and Gilbert Hess, entitled the "Vacant Chair." Accordion solo by Loraine Christman. Vocal Duet, Paul and Stuart Lerch, Mrs. Jas. Greek accompanied on piano. Violin solo, Mary Young, accompanied by Virginia Hauser on piano. Dancing specialty by Fay Young. Monologue by Mrs. Geo. J. Laubach. Vocal solo by Mrs. Paul Lerch, accompanied on piano by husband. Remarks by Thomas and Brooks Lerch from Wyomissing, Pa. The farthest comer was C. Seidel Revenolt from Turbotville, Pa. Treasurer and historian absent. A small amount for bank. Everyone was anxious that the history book should be published. The following is the closing Hymn:

(Tune, "Lord, Dismiss Us with Thy Blessing")

I.

Now our hearts are filled with gladness, With the program we enjoyed Thanks to all who nobly rendered, Ready, willing, ne'er annoyed. Willing workers, willing workers, Triumph peacefully at last.

(Repeat last line.)

II.

Heartily with love we welcomed, All the clan along our way. Feeling we have been improved, By the things we did today. Let us Cherish, let us cherish, Our Ancestors gone before.

III.

May the Dear Lord guide us always, Keep the Lerchs ever safe. Guide us to our various places, Watch, protect us by His grace. Keep us safely, keep us safely, Here and in Eternity.

Author, C. H. H., 1932.

Benediction, Rev. George J. Laubach. Respectfully submitted, Camilla Heckman, Sec.

The Thirteenth Annual Lerch Reunion was held at Dorney Park, Pa., July 29, 1933, very successfully. Ideal weather, fine accommodation, are the essential elements to make good meetings. We had sad reverses through the past year. Death had cast a gloom over the Association's board of managers. It hurts when such sudden vacancies occur, such congenial workers, who never swerved, but congenial and ready to do their best for the welfare of all. Nevertheless, we feel grateful that we were influenced by their noble counsels, and could behold the beautiful life that they lived. What they did will never vanish from our memories. The meeting was called to order by the vice president, Stuart Lerch. Opening hymn, Paul Lerch, pianist. Invocation, Rev. Chas. D. Lerch. Address of welcome, Rev. Geo. J. Laubach. Violin solo, Arlene Engler, accompanied on piano by Mrs. E. E. Koontz. Reading, Mrs. Austin Lerch. Accordion solo, Loraine Christman. Piano duet, Ruth Lilly and Evelyn Reinhard. Reading, Mrs. Wilbert Best. Vocal solo, Louise Riegel. Reading, "Jimmie's Vacation," by Mrs. Geo. J. Laubach. Piano duet, Harold and Nelson Newhard. Recitation, Geo. B. Laubach. Vocal solo, Stuart Lerch, accompanied by Paul on the piano. Pantomime and hymn, "Some Day We'll Understand," by Margaret, May, Arlene Fenstermacher, Gilbert Hess, Dorothea Gogle, Ruth Odenwelder, Camilla Heckman, accompanied by Mary Young on violin,

Business Session. Stuart Lerch elected president for vacancy, and Homer Lerch, treasurer, in his late father's place. Three vice presidents, viz: Willis Engler, Wm, T. Lerch, and Herman Lerch. Also some to fill vacancies on executive committees:

Business session. All re-elected. Historian report by Wm. P. Lerch, closed in due form. A perfect program rendered. The large audience left each other well satisfied with the day spent. The treasury began to diminish, printing and prizes increased in prices and final steps had to be taken to save the cash to print the Histories. Farthest comer, Cora Texley, Nebraska. Deceased members during the year: Delia, Miranda, Lydia, Louise, Amandas, Susan and Rev. Chas. D. Lerch, Edwin Benner, Walter Kindt, Jr., Esther L. Bendel, Lizzie L. Bauman, Lizzie L. Musselman, C. Fifteenth Annual Lerch Reunion at Dorney Park, Pa., July 27, 1935. Regular hymns. Invocation, Rev. Geo. T. Laubach. Address, Rev. Paul Leinbach. All served as at previous year, except a quartet, "In the Hour of Trial," by Mary Riegel, Marion, Paul, and Stuart Lerch. A reading by Oleda Lerch. "A Massive Gate-Way," by Annie Lerch, Marion and Paul Lerch, Florence Gogle, Martha Odenwelder, Dalton Schneck and Secretary. All officers re-elected. Reading, Mrs. George T. Laubach. The day was beautiful. Since 1921 we had permanently set this last Saturday in July and not one ugly day. The heads of our Brotherhood at Schoenersville Church, for the same idea took it for their picnic, after we had selected and announced it for a whole year ahead as there were no picnics scheduled at churches or Sunday Schools. We tried to keep the "Golden Rule," but most people only have money as their "God," have forgotten the 13th chapter of Corinthians. We therefore selected another date, so it did not conflict and keep members from other active organizations, and the Dear Lord has richly blessed us. Where there is love and peace, God addeth the power and that is the Lerch family "Bulwark." After the new visitors from afar had learned our plight and we selected another day, they came again and we have good weather and a good attendance and are not in the hot days to swelter in the heat. The Lerch family strictly adheres to the 4th Commandment, to honor our parents, which may be duly confined also to our older and ancestral generations. It is authentic, they never asperse the seniors, have given time and talent. and labors free gratis, and still they are more auriferous and at their journey's end, their conscience is clean. Last hymn and benediction by Rev. Paul Leinbach. Deceased throughout year: Joseph, Alice R, George, Mrs. Levine, Gus, and Levine Lerch. Annie L. Dealt, Alfred Snyder, Gertie L. Daniel, Emma L. Y. Smith. Respectfully submitted, Sec. Camilla H. Heckman. Paul and Stuart Lerch are to be complimented on History work.

Sixteenth Annual Lerch Reunion was held at Dorney Park, Pa., Saturday, July 25th, 1936, with a large audience, in the absence or the president, Paul Lerch opened the meeting, singing the opening hymn, Paul at the piano. Invocation, Rev. George J. Laubach. Address of welcome, Rev. Earl R. Kreidler. Response, George B. Laubach. Reading, Oleda Lerch. Violin solo, Arlene Engler, accompanied by Mrs. Francis Engler. Reading, A Flipper Ride, Mrs. Austin Lerch. A Soldiers Dance, and two other performances, Miss Fay L. Young. Recitation, "Her Many Beaus, and Did Not Marry," Mrs. George J. Laubach. Quartette, "Come Unto Me," Mary Riegel, Marion, Paul and Stuart Lerch, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Kemmerer. A Pa. German Letter by Camilla Heckman. Secretary's report. Historian's report, Wm. P. Lerch. Remarks by visitors.

Old officers re-elected. A committee appointed to secure place for next reunion, viz: Wm. P., Russel W., Homer C., Paul R. Lerch, and the Secretary. The third Saturday in June was selected as a permanent meeting day. Never were cousins present from such a distance and such encouraging letters were received from those unable to attend. The farthest comer was Ida Magee Lerch Gallaid and husband, from South Carolina, 850 miles, but returned the gift, as he was so much benefited and enjoyed the meeting, that he could not accept another gift. Another was an aged lady, Mrs. Amelia Rader from Washington, D. C. The oldest lady was Selinda Lerch Cressman, 83 years. Baby Ringer was the youngest, 8 weeks old.

Our Rev. Laubach's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Laubach, celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary, July 28, 1937, through the year. Best wishes and God's richest blessing for the future. And Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Newhard, Sr., Silver Wedding. Same greetings to you. The contest committee, Mr. and Mrs. W. Odenwelder, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Engler, Mabel Gogle. Winners in contests were Fay Young, Willard and Martha Odenwelder, Sterling and Florence Gogle, Ralph Hess, Mrs. S. Kemmerer, Mrs. C. R. Young, Ruth Bryan, J. H. Lerch. Closing hymn. Benediction, Rev. Earl R. Kreidler. This was a very well rendered program. After supper was enjoyed, all felt benefited with the day spent.

C. Heckman, Sec.

Seventeenth Annual Lerch Reunion was held at Central Park, Pa., Saturday, Aug. 7th, 1937. Being the date and place was not announced at the preceding year's reunion, it always causes some hindrance to the attendance. In the forenoon, the weather was discouraging, but the afternoon brought a nice assembly of social and co-operative friends and cousins. Where one was absent, we had those who successfully substituted. We were sorry that the family of G. Philip Lerch, Bellaire, L. I., N. Y., and Ed. Lerch and daughter, who were our guests for the first time, had auto trouble and came late. Our younger people are to be complimented for the excellent service they give us. At 2 P. M., Miss Evelyn Reinhard served in place of the pianist. Vice President Willis Engler, called the meeting to order. Hymn. Invocation and prayer, Camilla Heckman substituted for Rev. Laubach. Vocal solo by Ellamae Fehr. Piano solo by Ruth R. Lilly. Violin solo, Arlene Engler, accompanied by Mrs. Francis Engler. Accordion solo, Annabella Lerch. Piano duet, Ruth Odenwelder, and brother Warren. Vocal solo, Ellamae Fehr. Piano solo and duet, Ruth Lilly and sister, Evelyn Reinhard. Silent Prayer. Hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee," accompanied by Secretary.

Business session. All officers re-elected. The historian, Wm. P. Lerch, urges more co-operation in History work. Mr. and Mrs. Ervin (nee Annie Lerch) Reinhard and Camilla Heckman, attended all 17 reunion meetings. Alfred Kahler, oldest present, and Levine Kahler, farthest comer. Youngest Joyce Croyer. Largest family Wm. P. Lerch. Next reunion, 3rd Saturday in June, 1938 at Central Park, Pa. Last hymn. Instead of benediction, the audience offered Mizpah. Deceased through year: Clara L. Beidelman, Richard Biery, Irvin Brown, Elmer Heberling, Theodore Hess, Mary L. Koehler, Hon. Adam Gearhard Lerch, 88 years, Belinda Lerch, Emma Y. Lerch, Jas. Fred Lerch, Willis Young, Anna Lerch Oplinger, Mary Lerch Hay, Hiram U. Laubach.

Eighteenth Annual Lerch Reunion was held at Central Park, Pa., Saturday, June 8th, 1930. A large gathering, ambitious and willing helpers, on program. The ministers, singers, readers, musicians, contestants all ready for a good time, We had a grand treat, Mrs. Jennie Steinbecker, of Allentown, Pa., St. Peter's Lutheran Church, entertained with her Junior Choir, presenting the noted hymn, "Stilla Nacht, Heiliga Nacht." They received a hearty applause in return. Frank Reinhard was appointed president elect. Opened with hymn. Invocation, Rev. G. J. Laubach and address of welcome. Tap dance, Fay L. Young, accompanied by Helen Best. Piano solo, Warren Odenwelder. Saxophone solo, Marjorie Lerch, accompanied by Annabelle Fehnel, Frank Lerch and children, Clara L., Lloyd, Mary, Elda, Annabelle, songs, viz: "Silver Threads Among the Gold," "Grandfather's Clock." Piano duet, Ruth Lilly and Evelyn Reinhard. Silent prayer for deceased. Largest families, Frank Lerch, Howard Lerch. Oldest, Alfred Kahler, 88 years old. Youngest, Patsy and Etan, 3 weeks. It was decided to have the 1939 reunion at Central Park, Pa., the 3rd Saturday in June. Contest Committee: viz: Lula Young, Annie Lerch, Russel Lerch, and Ralph Hess. The committee brings joy and laughter to us as a crowd, they are what gasoline is to the car. They get them moving. They also will sell the badges, and if anything else is for sale. They are the ones who cannot sit and rest, as much as the others, so they deserve credit while they live.

Our financials are not increasing. We miss our departed in that part of the program. Deceased in a year: David C. S. Brinker, Chas. S. Gogle, Anna May Lerch, Emma L. Hawk, Levine A. Lerch, Thomas Gogle, Mary L. Weaver, Marietta Lerch. Recorded by Camilla Heckman, Sec.

200TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE LANDING OF ANDREAS LERCH AND SONS ANTHONY, PETER & PANCRATIUS LERCH

Landed Sept. 6th, 1738 at Philadelphia, Pa., from Germany. Another wonderful day was witnessed by an audible gathering Sept. 18th, 1939, at Zion's Stone Church near Kreidersville, Pa, where many of our forebears are resting from their labors, but their works follow on. The name "Lerch" is upheld in that community, and are the standards at the House of God, leading and preserving things, and taking the utmost precaution that nothing can mar that sacred place. Mrs. Elda Atherholt, faithful and active member deserves the entire honor that can be bestowed on anyone for her generous deeds she assimilated in preparing that place for this most outstanding occasion. She also serves as the able choir mistress and organist of same place. And the phrentisterion church council, with their good wives left the Harvest Home decorations. The writer cannot think of any thing more honorable, and more beautiful; words are inadequate, because what they do or decorate is complete. How everyone enjoyed that quiet serenity which is customary at the Church of God, which is the most exalted place for all reunions. The members of the clan greatly appreciated the hospitality of this grand lady and the religious church council who made this affair so successful.

Stone Church is built on an elevated spot and with its gorgeous steeple, can be seen for miles around. It proves to the passers by that men of knowledge, loyal and kind hearted, are leaders, if you consider their well kept and scientifically planned church, nice cemeteries and fences around it and also around all other places. It proves that they are God fearing and try to practice the "Golden Rule," at all their festivities and anniversaries. They have crowds and all consent to the foregoing sentiment. Promptly at 2 P.M., the meeting began. Our two talented musicians, Elda Lerch Atherholt, mostly arranged the program organist "of said church with her choir, and Paul Lerch with his choir of Saucon Church, Pa., where he serves as organist.

The invocation was offered by Rev. Charles Ruloff, Lutheran pastor of the congregation. Our pastor, Rev. George J. Laubach, a member of the clan, always helping, gave a fine address relating how one Lerch's and Laubach's came to Philadelphia, Pa., together on one ship and even were friends in Germany already, intermarried with each other and after 200 years, Laubachs and Lerchs are together in peace and harmony. Beautiful hymns and choir anthems were rendered, with group singing, vocal solos and duets, relieving speakers. Wm. P. Lerch, the historian spent the forenoon searching names on the cemeteries, for a history that was very valuable to him. He filled his position well. He could tell, and explain the Lerch history verbatim, and to the point. He could easily hold the attention of an audience, and of good will little did anyone think that that would be his last meeting to be with the Lerch's until December 4th, 1938, on his aged mother's 81st birthday, he was called to join that "Great" Reunion that shall never break up. Another faithful member gone Home. The Secretary composed "a poem," in honor of the event, including all that history revealed, containing 207 lines, which will be given with each History Book as a gift. Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Lerch presented the Memorial Hymn. Misses Riegel and Fehr rendered duets. Everyone performed his or her duties excellently. A nice offering was lifted. Our expenses were reasonable and no place was more quiet, and comfortable, since we gather annually, than this sacred place. Free from the disturbing rumbling noises of vanity, the program was furnished at a very low figure by Russell W. and sister Catherine Lerch. Ushers were Lula Young and Annie Lerch, who treated the people with the best courtesy. A Registering Book showed about two hundred present. Mrs. Atherholt and her Choir rendered very fine anthems, and audience joined in. To hear these two Choirs sing seemed like a real heaven on earth, nothing could be added, it was a complete success. Closing with the Lord's Prayer and Doxology, and Benediction by Rev. George J. Laubach. All were well satisfied with the 200th anniversary celebration.

SPECIAL MEETING, APRIL, 1939

After William P. Lerch, Historian, a beloved member of our clan, was called away suddenly and unexpectedly, a special meeting was called, and his son Russell was appointed to fill the office of his late father. At least till a predecessor would be named, since he was familiar with the literature, and documents, preparatory to writing the History. The Association suffered a heavy loss, but all will have trials, simply trust in God, who knows our needs, and He can heal the hearts that are wounded. -Secretary Camilla H. Heckman.

THE 19TH ANNUAL LERCH REUNION

The 19th Annual Lerch Reunion was held at Central Park, Allentown, Pa., Saturday, June 17, 1939. Program as follows: Invocation and Address of Welcome, Rev. G. J. Laubach. Response, Albert Lerch, Reading; "Jimmie on Vacation," Mrs. G. J. Laubach; Piano Solo, Evelyn Reinhard. Vocal Duet, Ella Mae Fehr and Mary Riegel, accompanied by Paul R. Lerch, on piano. A comedy skit, "But you find em awer dummer," by Elda Lerch Atherholt, as Lena Himmelburger, and Annabelle Lerch Fehnel as Sadie Awerdumm. Very good. Accordion selections, Dalton Schneck, the Secretary's grandson: Saxophone Solo, Marjorie Lerch; Accordion Solo, as a tribute to the departed, "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling," by Annabelle L. Fehnel, rendered solemnly and sweetly. Vocal Solo, Phyllis Lerch, 5 years, from Blairstown, N. Y.

The day was fair and a good attendance.

"A TRUTH"

Honor the brave, do not forget,
And make them happy before they're dead.
Author, C. H. H.

An example worthwhile to follow: Rev. and Mrs. George J. Laubach live on a farm, are connected with three churches, where he preaches, and Mrs. Laubach, a talented initiative, are very busy in Church work, and still regularly attend the reunions. They have always the hardest numbers on the program. The Secretary thinks it her duty to extend the sincerest gratitude in the name of the Clan to them. The most numbers are given by distant members. Where is our local talent? They better stick to their country, so they will not lose their citizenship.

Oldest member present, Sarah Lerch, 81 years. Largest families, Frank and Howard Lerch (tie). Some 200th Anniversary Poems were sold for 15 cents to keep out of a deficit.

We also note a Golden Wedding, Mr. and Mrs. George Wartmen, with dinner at Schoenersville Restaurant. Deceased through the year were: Catherine Lerch, Mabel Lafaw, Ida Gernet Laubach, Stuart Lerch, Mrs. George Leidich, Paul C. Wartman. And a son was born to

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lerch, Pianist and sincere co-workers in every way. May God's richest blessing abide with them?

Closed in due form, Benediction by Rev. G. J. Laubach, followed
By contests and games.

20TH ANNUAL LERCH REUNION

The 20th Annual Lerch Reunion was held at Saucon Park, Bethlehem, Pa., June 15, 1940. At 11 A. M., a thunder storm came by, and some people thought there would be no meeting, but soon the sun shone, and the pavilion so nice and big we did not have a complaint. But after dinner, they came and a fine program was enjoyed. We are trying to make ends meet. We did not make any expenses for programs, nor Invitation Cards, we save according to other years $17.00. The Secretary wrote 200 sheets with hymn, "Thus far the Lord hath led us on, and the Mizpah verse, also 250 invitation cards. All worked O. K. And the park was delightful, with the lovely flowers. We have two things to enjoy, programs and flowers. The Secretary has two anniversaries today that she regards highly, that she did not gain by her own power, but by "Divine Grace", 1st. the 50th year as Sunday School Teacher. Oct. 10, 1939, she was appointed as a delegate, by the secretary of the Reformed Board of the Sabbath School Association, to go to Williamsport, Pa., where the Convention Convened. Was presented with 50 year Gold Medal, in the Church where the audience numbered 1000 according to registration cards. Taught 22 years German and 28 years English.

Second, it is 20 years that she is serving as secretary all the while, since I ordained it, and had always the best co-operation. The program: We had no piano, so Elda Lerch Atherholt led the singing, and President Frank Reinhard presided. Invocation, by Rev. George J. Laubach, also Address of Welcome, Response, Albert Lerch. Vocal solo, Shirley Reinhard; duet, violin and clarinet by Bernadine and Robert Lerch. Reading, Mrs. Geo. Mertz. Dramatic reading, "Romeo and Juliet" by Mrs. Geo. J. Laubach. The young and old have their sadness removed when Mrs. Laubach gives us a number in a Pennsylvania Dutch reading by Annabelle Fehnel, very good, title "Der Spesuch(?) Wer Net Gewellt." Ditto by Arlene Lerch. Elda and Annabelle, sisters, vocal duet. Elda and Annabelle, dialogue, "Aunt Betz and the Oil Stock Man." We have an element amongst our people that we may feel proud, no matter is it, music, singing, reading, working or playing instruments, and that is a great blessing.

For last year's Reunion we tried to save money, and we dispensed from having printing done and the secretary wrote the hymns. We were anxious to have a history to know who we are and who our ancestors are. We economized in every way possible. Through the depression, our Treasury was losing, and the expenses exceed the income and that was the only way to remedy it. We have finally accomplished a great part of our dreams, the foundation is laid. The book is outlined for printing. Fine co-operation, from educated, genealogists, and why do some not send their history. The Secretary sent 225 cards urging everyone for the same that the first historian begged for 21 years, but as we did our duty, we are satisfied they did not consider it interesting to them. We were more than pleased after corresponding with publishing offices through their courtesy we received many letters from all over, even California, where we never knew but it had Lerchs. That idea brought great results. Business session. All officers re-elected, also same place to meet coming year. Prizes went to oldest, Selinda Cressman, 87 years. Youngest, Judith Smith, Largest family, Mrs. Lillie Lerch. Farthest comer, Quintus Lerch. The expenses were $8.50. Netted for the treasury $4.30. Business session all officers re-elected and Camilla Heckman also Historian. Closing hymn, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." Benediction, Rev. George J. Laubach. Deceased through year: Catherine Yahreas Meyers, 56 years; Melville Lerch Werner, 6 years. Contest Committee Lula Leung, Annie Lerch, Russell Lerch. Winners, church plus, Robert Lerch; banana eating, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Smith; door prize, Mrs. Frank Lerch. Camilla H. Heckman, Secretary and Historian.

The 21st Annual Lerch Reunion, also on the 21st of June, 1941, at Saucon Park, Pa. It also marks the "History Book" ready for final revisions relative to printing. The day was beautiful, Summer beginning, sitting under the grand pavilion, all around these gorgeous flowers, with cool rippling stream walled off for safety, all was beyond words for comfort. Also a nice distance away from the highway to relieve parents from constant worrying about their children. It is one of the prettiest parks in many counties. The courtesy from the managers is fine. Annie Lerch had decorated the pavilion with National Colors. The Lerch Flag, and the Union Flag. Everyone was so pleasant and contented. The President being in service for National duties, Mrs. Annie Lerch was President pro tem, she is one of our main pillars of this Reunion, of our country, and does always more than the average person, is kind and affectionate, a very type of the "Good Samaritan". At 2 P.M., first hymn "America," Invocation, Rev. George J. Laubach, and also address, his theme was "Do More Missionary Work at Home." Response, Mrs. Annie Lerch. Trio, "Friendship of Jesus" and "Come to Me," by Mrs. Atherholt, Mrs. Fehnel, Mrs. Smith. Dramatic reading, "Making a Man" by Mrs. G. J. Laubach. German dialect, Mrs. Lloyd Lerch. Eulogy for deceased, hymn, "Beautiful of Prayer." Five minute address, Mrs. Mertz. The meeting was hurried through, being Rev. Geo. J. Laubach and Mrs. Atherhalt, organist, each officiated at weddings at 4 o'clock.

In 1940, Rev. George J. Laubach celebrated his Silver Anniversary as pastor for 25 years at St. Peter's Congregation, near Seemsville, and St. John's, Howertown, Pa. Wishing him and family many more anniversaries, and "Divine Blessing." Business session: All officers re-elected. Secretary for the 22nd year. Closing hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee." Financials, $1.36 deficit. Deceased, John Lerch, 70 years, 9 months, 8 days; Preston R. Lerch, 59 years; Hannah (nee Marsh) widow of Levi Uhler, 88 years, 1 month, 25 days. Contest winners, Florence Gogle, Mrs. Raymond Beidelman, Mrs. Wm. Lerch, Mrs. Steve Rader. Oldest, Willis Engler. Youngest, Robert Zullick. Largest family, Mamel Gogle, Frank Lerch, tie. Mrs. Ray Kaehler, Gladys Beidelman. Respectfully submitted, Camilla Heckman, secretary and historian.

The attendance of these Reunions I wrote to see how they would differ in numbers. In 1922, it was 219, and 10 years later, in 1932, it was 155. A difference of 64, not so bad, as 40 passed away, and we had a hard depression, people had not the means, and privilege to do as they desired.

DESCENDANT OF JOHN BOYER & WIFE, ANNA MARIA LERCH

John Boyer, or Johannes Boyer, was born August 15, 1742, and died January 5, 1825, according to his gravestone in the Lower Saucon Tw's'p (Northampton County, Pa.) churchyard. He married Anna Maria Lerch (a daughter of Gratius Lerch and wife Anna Maria Bahl, of Lower Saucon). She was born Nov. 21, 1750, and died March 19, 1825, surviving her husband only a few months. She, too, is buried in Lower Saucon. They were both members of the Reformed Church of Lower Saucon.

It seems highly probable that John was an immigrant, though the ship lists do not record his name. However, it is a well-known fact that these lists are not complete. That he was German is known from an old family Bible, which has descended from him. The earliest definite record that we have of John Boyer, is the tax list of Lower Saucon Township, for the year 1766. This list also includes the names of Blasius Boyer and Jacob Boyer, father and son, respectively. Blasius, with his family, removed to Philadelphia County, about 1768. His will, of record at Philadelphia, does not mention a son named John, and it seems safe to conclude that he was not John's father. He may have been an uncle or other close relative.

On the list of Upper Saucon, an adjoining township, for the same year (1766), we note the name of Abraham Boyer, who is listed for the first time. Abraham appears to have been a substantial farmer, being assessed for 260 acres of land. Whether or not he was related to John, may never be known. His name disappears entirely from the records of Northampton County after 1768.

John Boyer was, as the records tend to show, a very close relative of Frederick Boyer 1745-1825 and Michael Boyer 1746-1820. All three appear on the tax list of Lower Saucon for 1772, Frederick, and Michael for the first time. We know though, that Michael lived in the vicinity in 1767, perhaps before. They often appeared as sponsors at the baptisms of each other's children. A close social relationship existed between the respective descendants of these three early Boyers, down to the present generation. A careful study of all Boyer references in deeds, wills, Orphan's Court, Church and other records of Northampton, Bucks and Berks Counties, has failed to establish the parentage of these three Boyers. This is not surprising, in view of the tradition that they were immigrants. It seems likely that the parents remained in Germany. An analysis of all available facts, leaves no reasonable doubt that John, Frederick and Michael were brothers or first cousins.

The Pennsylvania Archives, volume 8, series 5, pages 86, 339 and 359, record that John Boyer, of Lower Saucon, was a Revolutionary War soldier. He served in 1782 as a private under Capt. Jesse Jones, in the Northampton County Militia, 4th Battalion, 4th Company. In 1783, we find that he served in the 1st Battalion, under Captain Edward Shimer.

John Boyer was a prosperous farmer in Lower Saucon, where he lived until the time of his death. His farm was located less than a mile northwest of the Lower Saucon Church. It remained in possession of the family for several generations, and was sold to the Bethlehem Steel Company, a few years before the late war. A substantial cash consideration was involved.

John Boyer's will may be seen at Easton, Pa., in the Northampton County Court House. It was proved March 21, 1827.

ALFRED LERCH

Alfred Lerch was born Oct. 15, 1878 and died Jan. 5, 1963. He was also known as Alfred Rhoads Lerch, assuming his mother's maiden name as his middle name. He is the son of Benneville F. Lerch, born June 29, 1839, died Dec. 27, 1895, and Emma Rosetta Rhoads, born Mar. 24, 1857, died July 31, 1889.

His parents were not married. His father lived in a hotel in Bethlehem where his mother worked, presumably the Grand Central Hotel. Emma was a daughter of Reuben Rhoads (Roth) and Catherine Angstadt. Reuben's grandmother, Maria Adam Grosscup, was a Cherokee Indian.

Alfred had a tough life beginning with his mother's death when he was 10. Apparently, his father occasionally gave him money until he reached the age of 15. His father died when he was 17. His maternal grandfather, Reuben Rhoads, raised him. He began life on his own working at German-speaking bakeries in Philadelphia.

First Lerches settled at Durham Furnace, Pa., where Riegel's Mill now stands.

It was unlawful to list children under 18 on ships registry.

Hometown in Germany was Lorch-Dahl, changed to Lerch in 18th century.

Most early Lerches were buried at Lower Saucon Graveyard. Some at Williams Township Church.

His first language was Pennsylvania German, or "Dutch." He also spoke English and learned German in Philadelphia. Baking became one of his many professions.

About 1895, Alfred joined the U.S. Navy. It is rumored that he joined under a fictitious name, and eventually walked away from this venture having not appreciated the position. It is further whispered that he looked over his shoulder the remainder of his life and possibly this was the cause of his frequent relocations.

Around the turn of the 20th century, Alfred answered an ad for a bakery worker in McClure, Pa. There he worked for James A. Wagner and eventually married the boss's daughter, Lottie, born May 18, 1889, died Aug. 15, 1973. When he arrived in McClure, Alfred was pleased that they spoke Dutch and played the card game, "Hoss" (Hasenpeffer).

Some of Alfred's professions, in addition to baking in Philadelphia and Beavertown, Pa. include: farming at Raubs Mills (near Beaver Springs, Pa.); trolley operator in Philadelphia; restaurateur in Lewistown, Pa., and; furniture store in Lewistown.

BENNEVILLE F. LERCH

Benneville Lerch, father of Alfred, b. June 29, 1839, d. Dec 27, 1895, aged 56(?) years, was a respected salesman and a Civil War veteran. Not much is known beyond the following Civil War record and Obituary. He was a sergeant in the union army. The dates on the record below are confusing since his obituary states that he "served until the close of the Rebellion." Perhaps the writer did not find the entire documentation. Note that his name is listed as Benjamin, also how listed on the baptismal certificate of his son, Alfred.

Obituary

Benneville F. Lerch, the veteran salesman, died yesterday morning at 10:30 in his rooms at the Grand Central Hotel, where he was boarding. His illness was a brief one, being confined to bed only since last Friday. Heart disease was the cause of death. Deceased was born near Kreidersville, Northampton County, and was 58 years of age. He was the son of the late Joseph Lerch, a farmer. When he was 21 years of age, he went to Bethlehem and started in as clerk in the store of his brother, the late John Lerch. He remained with him several years, and then came to this city and was associated with Charles Roeder in the dry good business on the present site of Danowsky's drug store. Soon after the war broke out, Mr. Lerch enlisted in Co. G., 128th Regiment, in which he served until the close of the Rebellion. Since that time, he was employed at various times by Kramer and Co., D. S. Menges, Koch and Shankweiler and for the past ten years, he was connected with the store of W. R. Lawfer and Co. He was regarded as one of the best salesmen in this city. Deceased was married to a daughter of the late Joseph Saeger. She died thirty years ago. Two brothers survive, Amandus Lerch of Petersville and David Lerch of Easton, and one sister, Mrs. Reuben Koons of Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Lerch was a man well liked by all who knew him and his death is widely lamented and deeply deplored. The Lerch family yesterday, had a reunion at Petersville, Northampton County, which the deceased was expected to attend. Jacob Danner drove there to notify them of the death. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon at Grand Central Hotel to which relatives and friends, members of Regiment No 128, Penna. Vol. Infantry and the employes of W. R. Lawfer & Co. store are respectfully invited without further notice. Services will be held in Salem's Reformed Church. Rev. G. W. Richards officiating. Interment in West End Cemetery.

Benneville F. Lerch

Emma Rosetta Rhoads

Alfred and Lottie retired to Lewistown prior to World War II with all eight living children. The four sons worked in a furniture store at Lerch Furniture Co., an enterprise founded by James. Eventually, son Edwin removed to Urbana, Il. for a career at Chanute Air Force Base. Daughter Frances and husband relocated to Manheim, Pa., later East Petersburg, Pa.

The Door

How wonderful if there were a door to Heaven that we could open at will! This door could eliminate all of our troubles and sorrows by simply allowing us to unbolt it and enter God's domain. Actually, "the door" is at our fingertips and within our reach. Jesus said, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any one hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me." (Revelation 3:20 RSV.) Jesus added, "He who conquers, I will grant him to sit with me on my throne, as I myself conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne." (Revelation 3:21 RSV.)

Jesus is the doorway to heaven. We cannot enter as we are. We are sinners with sinful, mortal bodies. We must be changed before we can cross the threshold to Heaven. The apostle Paul tells us, "For this perishable nature must put on the imperishable, and this mortal nature must put on immortality. When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: 'Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting?' The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." (1 Corinthians 15:53-57 RSV.)

The aged door in the picture above was once a beautiful entrance to my Mother's childhood home. It is testimony to the fact that in the beginning, God wound-up His creation, which is now winding down. By three steps, one could enter Mom's home, and by three steps, one can enter Heaven:

1. Confess your sins. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (1 John 1:9 KJV.)
2. Believe in Christ. Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. (Acts 16:31b KJV.)
3. Ask Jesus into your Heart. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: (John 1:12 KJV.)

Jesus can and will save you from your sins, and make a place for you in Heaven: In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. (John 14:2-3 RSV.)

If you would like to enter the door to Heaven, pray, "Dear Father in Heaven, I know I am a sinner and have sinned against you. I am sorry for my sins and sinful nature, and ask for your forgiveness. I accept Jesus now as my Savior, who shed His blood for me. I give my life to you and will strive to live for you. Thank you, LORD, for saving my soul. In Jesus name I pray, Amen."
