EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Dr. Vern W. Wood III, founder of Iron Eagle Hotshot, brings over 20 years of professional over-the-road driving experience with reefers, dry vans, drop decks, flatbeds, and tankers, along with extensive experience hauling doubles. He holds DOT endorsements authorizing the operation of tankers, doubles, and triples. His veteran discipline and proven record of safe, compliant operations ensure dependable service that consistently meets the highest DOT and FMCSA standards.

Iron Eagle Hotshot delivers secure, adaptable and cost-effective hotshot and for-hire trucking solutions nationwide, specializing in time-sensitive freight with precision, accountability, and mission-first reliability.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Expedited Hotshot Hauling - Rapid-response transport for urgent and time-sensitive freight, including last-minute deliveries, emergency equipment transport, and critical parts replacement. Specialized in ensuring on-time performance under tight deadlines.
- Interstate & Intrastate Trucking - Reliable service across state lines and within regional markets, with knowledge of regulatory requirements, route planning, and state-specific compliance. Ready to support both short-haul and long-haul freight needs.
- Trailer Versatility - Extensive experience operating with bumper-pull, gooseneck, fifth-wheel, reefers, dry vans, drop decks, flatbeds, tankers, and doubles & triples. Flexibility to meet diverse cargo requirements across multiple industries.
- Specialized Freight Handling - Proficient in transporting construction materials, agricultural products, machinery, and specialty loads. Skilled in adapting equipment and securement methods to protect sensitive, oversized, or high-value cargo.
- Load Securement & Safety - Advanced safety practices using chains, binders, straps, and tarps to ensure secure transport. Demonstrated record of zero cargo loss or damage, with adherence to FMCSA cargo securement standards.
- FMCSA/DOT Compliance - Proven track record of safe operations, active DOT medical certification, and licensed endorsements. Experienced in maintaining audit-ready compliance with federal and state transportation regulations.
- Veteran Reliability - Operations built on military values of discipline, accountability, and precision. Every delivery is approached with mission-first commitment, ensuring integrity and professionalism in all client engagements.
- Government & Commercial Alignment - Positioned to support federal, state, local, and private sector hauling needs. Registered in SAM.gov, SBA DSBS, and the Disaster Response Registry to qualify for government task orders, while also fully prepared for broker, direct-shipper, and subcontracting opportunities.
