

Little, useful ways to say things...

It can be HARD to say what you mean when you also want to be polite and want all of your favourite people to get excited for your wedding. Here are a couple of things I've come across that may be of help to you all. Adapt where necessary!

We would like money instead of gifts	We don't have a list of pots & pans, just hopes & dreams & honeymoon plans. If giving a gift is on your mind, then a contribution would be kind.
Dress codes	We would love everyone to dress for the occassion, so, kilts and big hats are encourgaed!
No children	We have decided to have an adults only celebration and hope that everyone will enjoy a relaxing day with friends. ♡ While we love your little ones, our celebration will be an adults only kind of day.
No plus ones	Yet to come across this.... please let me know if you have something I can add!
