	Barriers Encountered	Our staff has indicated that it has been difficult for AEA to visit our facility to evaluate a few children. We have determined that up to 5 children may require this evaluation due to observed behaviors in the classroom. As always, these behaviors are challenging for our teachers who may not have the specialized training needed.
Success Stories	Sammy is a little boy, from Berma, who started with Grin and Grow . When he started with us he was non verbal, VERY shy, almost to the point of being aggressive towards teachers, probably because we couldn't understand him and he couldn't understand us. He would stand in one place all day (if we allowed it) and usually cry. He wouldn't eat, play or interact with others. I am SO happy to say that our Sammy has learned his colors, how to spell his name, he comes in EVERY morning and gives the office staff a hug. He has blossomed into a fun loving little boy that enjoys us as much as we enjoy him.
