Barriers Encountered	We have been having some difficulties with the applications and enrollments because of language barriers. This is a issue primarily with our Burmese families. We are working with interpreters, but still run into many frustrating moments for both our office and the families. .
Success Stories	Since starting with the CVP program, Layla's mother was able to finish school and has received her teaching degree and teaching license. She begins her teaching career at the High School in the Fall.
