CURRICULUM VITAE OF JOCELYN BATOON-GARCIA, J.D.
(as of 5 May 2025)

Jocelyn Batoon-Garcia graduated from the University of the Philippines, Diliman, with a degree in Bachelor of Science in Foreign Service cum laude in 1978 and Bachelor of Laws (Juris Doctor) in 1986. She passed the Philippine Bar in 1997.

Batoon-Garcia served as a career officer in the Philippine Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) for 41 years from 1980 to her retirement in 2021.

In the Home Office Batoon-Garcia was assigned at different times as director in charge of the divisions handling the DFA's records, benefits and services, and personnel. As Secretary of the Board of Foreign Service Examiners, she administered the Foreign Service Examinations, the recruitment process for admitting career foreign service officers. She was also assigned as Assistant Secretary of the Board of Foreign Service Administration (BFSA), the highest governing body of the DFA on administrative matters. Batoon-Garcia was also heavily invested in training DFA personnel as Executive Director, and later Director General of the Foreign Service Institute. After two assignments abroad, Batoon-Garcia became the Assistant Secretary of the Office of Personnel and Administrative Services. Her last assignment in the Home Office was as Assistant Secretary for Internal Audit Service, which conducted management audits. For the six (6) years that Batoon-Garcia was Assistant Secretary in the Home Office she was a member of the BFSA.

Batoon-Garcia worked in different bilateral, regional and multilateral policy offices in the DFA as: Assistant Director, Office of ASEAN Affairs; Assistant Director Asian and Pacific Affairs; and Director, later Executive Director, Office of United Nations and International Organizations.

On foreign assignment, Batoon-Garcia served in various capacities as Consul in the Philippine Embassies in Tokyo and as Minister and Consul General in Washington, D.C. Later, Batoon-Garcia was appointed Ambassador to Venezuela and Trinidad and Tobago with jurisdiction over 20 other countries and territories. Subsequently she became the Ambassador to Thailand and Permanent Representative to UN ESCAP. Before retirement she was assigned as Ambassador to Norway, Iceland, Denmark, Sweden and Finland.

During Batoon-Garcia's various assignments in the Home Office and abroad, she formulated policy recommendations promoting Philippine interests involving political, economic, cultural, labor and assistance to national matters, among others. Aside from attending conferences, she represented the Philippines in the various countries and territories where she was assigned.

After retirement from the DFA, Batoon-Garcia joined MEPI, as Corporate Secretary, (2023-February 2025); Learn JP Corp., as Director, (2023 to the present); and AFDR Insurance Brokers, Inc. as Independent Director (2024 to the present).

Ambassador Jocelyn Batoon-Garcia (Retired) was born in 1956 and is married to Ambassador Evan P. Garcia (Retired) with whom she has one son.
