Key Author Information:

Compensation	As part of the promise of 'Lil Bug Events Company to remain as accessible to authors as possible, especially for independent authors facing challenges of breaking into the community, we put together an Author House for the special guests & specific VIPs. This allows the author's team flexibility, control & safety for themselves as well as their product. But they can plan in the comfort of knowing they have a guaranteed place to stay while attending a 'Lil Bug Events Company experience. We also provide you access to food & beverages during the event that fit within your dietary restrictions. This step is taken very seriously, where even if catering is limited in their service offerings, a meal will be procured for the Authors & their team.
Important Dates & Names to Keep in Mind	Each Author Team would be assigned a Representative of the 'Lil Bug Events Company Team for the duration of the event to handle any requests that the author or their assistants may need. This would be to ensure a dedicated streamline of communication & resolution during the event. All Authors will be confirmed by 30 days prior to an event. Necessary Bookings, Travel & Accommodations will be confirmed shortly thereafter.

If You Are Interested in Partnering with us for this event please reply back with the below form attached to your response including any questions, comments or concerns.
