Dear 4th & Main Fanatics,

Welcome

Welcome to our 6th annual Summer Quilt-Along! This years Quilt-Along is a little bit different than past years. It is spread out over more time (you can thank my travel schedule), and not as many different units and blocks as past years! But much like historic downtown with a city square, we will be building our quilt outward from the center making your quarter inch seams extra important. Plus we have some small piecing towards the end! I designed this quilt to play with the two color quilt look. You will need two backgrounds that are similar just slightly different shades and then 6 shades of a color family. That being said it would look great scrappy as well!

Housekeeping:

- 1) Patterns will be released every Monday from May 5th to September 1st (around 9am central time) with catch-up weeks built-in, in case of travels or other events.
- 2) I've tested and proofed this pattern a couple of times and present it in good faith, and that all the math and instructions are correct, but things can slip through the cracks.
- 3) Please, only use this pattern for your own use. The link for the pattern will be at the bottom of the weekly blog post.
- 4) Have fun and enjoy the process!!! I have planned the order of the blocks based on time needed and skill involved.
- 5) Share photos of your weekly sewing and how your quilt is coming along in the 4th & Main Fanatics Facebook Group. Please don't share photos beyond where we are in that weeks sewing. I know some of you may attempt to work ahead! but please no photos ahead of where we are. Plus you may miss out on tips and tricks to make your life easier!

Happy Quilting!
