Call For Art • Juried Exhibit

Submissions Due Jan. 1, 2023 • Opening Reception Feb. 11, 2-4pm

In this exhibit, we invite artists to explore any aspect of the concept of “emerging.” From personal life, to natural life, to the vastness of the universe, to the breadth of artistic imagination ...all perspectives are welcomed and encouraged.

Artists may submit up to 5 pieces by email to exhibits@StLukesMetuchen.org. Image files should be named as: Title_size_Medium. Example: Flowers_16x30_Painting Please include your name, address, phone, and the title, size, and medium of each submitted work in the email. Free to enter and to exhibit if chosen.

About the Gallery:

The mission of Nails in the Wall Gallery, a Ministry of St. Luke's, is to broaden the program offerings of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Metuchen by:

- Providing an inclusive, welcoming and supportive place for members of St. Luke's, artists and the wider community to grow in their spirituality through the medium of art,
- Offering exhibit themes and programs that seek to respect the dignity of every human being through our mutual connection to all of God's creation,
- Intentionally encouraging young, elderly, differently-abled and disadvantaged people to experience and participate in well-curated exhibits and exhibit-related programming.
