

Home: Security/Insecurity

CALL FOR ART

What is a home?

There are nests, dens, and burrows. There are houses of all kinds that we find, own, rent, or share.

There are homes that feel safe and secure, and those that do not. There are those who have no home at all. Everyone deserves a clean, safe place to live. However, the availability, equality, and affordability of housing are often unreliable.

Will your work convey safety or trouble? Humans or wildlife?

We look forward to presenting a wide variety on the subject of "home" in this juried exhibit.

Artists may submit up to 5 pieces* by email to exhibits@stlukesmetuchen.org

Submissions due Aug. 15, 2023. Opening Reception Sept. 23, 2-4pm On view until Dec. 17

Images must be named as title_size_medium

For example, an 8x10 inch painting titled "Flowers" would be named flowers_8x10_painting.

Please use inches for the size and do not include any additional information in the image name.

In the body of the email, please include name, address, phone number and a list of your entries.

*Art generated solely using AI, even if human words generate it, is not accepted at this time.

NAILS IN THE WALL" GALLERY
A Ministry of St. Luke's

The mission of Nails in the Wall Gallery, a Ministry of St. Luke's is to broaden the program offerings of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Metuchen by:

- Providing an inclusive, welcoming and supportive place for members of St. Luke's, artists and the wider community to grow in their spirituality through the medium of art,
- Offering exhibit themes and programs that seek to respect the dignity of every human being through our mutual connection to all of God's creation, and
- Intentionally encouraging young, elderly, differently-abled and disadvantaged people to experience and participate in well-curated exhibits and exhibit-related programming.
