

More than Just Words: the ART of Communication

Communication is a process through which information is exchanged between individuals through a common system of symbols, signs, or behavior.

Through spoken and written words, dance, sign language, body language, music and more, we express ourselves and convey our messages.

How will you express the theme of communication through your art?

We look forward to presenting a variety of interpretations on the theme of communication.

Artists may submit up to 5 pieces* by email to exhibits@StLukesMetuchen.org

Images must be named as title_size_medium.jpg For example, an 8x10 inch painting titled “Flowers” would be named flowers_8x10_painting.jpg Please use inches for the size and do not include any additional information in the image name.

In the body of the email, please include your name, address, and phone number with a list of your entries. Entries due Mon Dec 4, 2023

*At this time, art created solely using AI technology, even if generated from text written by a human, is not accepted.
All other mediums will be considered.

Exhibit Dates: Sat Feb 3 (reception 2-4pm) - Fri May 16, 2024

The mission of Nails in the Wall Gallery, a Ministry of St. Luke’s is to broaden the program offerings of St. Luke’s Episcopal Church, Metuchen by:

- Providing an inclusive, welcoming and supportive place for members of St. Luke’s, artists and the wider community to grow in their spirituality through the medium of art,
- Offering exhibit themes and programs that seek to respect the dignity of every human being through our mutual connection to all of God’s creation, and
- Intentionally encouraging young, elderly, differently-abled and disadvantaged people to experience and participate in well-curated exhibits and exhibit-related programming.

NAILS IN THE WALL GALLERY
A Ministry of St. Luke’s

St. Luke’s Episcopal Church
17 Oak Ave
Metuchen, NJ 08840
732-548-4308

exhibits@StLukesMetuchen.org