Dave was our listing agent, he helped us sell our house very quickly with a strong price. We were very fortunate to have Dave. Dave is very professional and kind. He works really hard, very hands on with attention to details. He has a deep understanding of the market, does thorough preparation of the property, and prices it properly. often went above and beyond to help us in all aspects of moving process as well. Dave's outstanding successes are the fruits of his hard work, we witnessed him sell our neighbor's house very successfully, he then outperformed our high expectations. We have no doubt he'll make his future clients happy again and again. Highly recommend Dave to all!

Recommend him 200%! We bought our house with him 12 years ago and sold it with him and both times were thrilled with the results. He not only knows Arlington and its dynamics extremely well but he is a master at the subtleties and nuances required to make a good deal great. He also goes the extra mile every time with all the details of staging, pictures, repairs, presentation etc and helps coordinate all of this himself with his vast network of contacts. He has seen it all before and is very creative in finding solutions to unexpected issues.

I would like to thank you Dave for all your help during the selling process. You were very patient in explaining whole process as we were the first- time home seller. You were also very helpful in making sure that house is ready and prepped for the photos and Open house. All the photographs were very bright and came out great. You also helped us in several house related small items which came in sellers home inspection - which would have cost me a few thousand dollars (paint on several walls and doors, touch ups for nails, removing leaves from roof gutters, redirecting gutter water so it does not leak in basement and garage, fixing cracks in the wall, pressure wash and help clean mold on the roof and many more things to list hear). For the bigger task like replacing the whole electric panel - you had the best and economical certified contractor. And finally, you helped us sell house in less than 2 weeks. Our closing cannot be smoother than what we had and there was no stress during this whole process. Once again, thank you for all your help during the selling of my house. I highly recommend you to all my friends.

07/20/2019 - Howell Yee - Sold a Single Family home in 2019 in Bedford, MA.

David provided unbelievable level of service. David could have easily offered comments or barked critiques but he did not. David rolled up his sleeves to help us get our home on the market. He painted a wall for us, sealed cracks in our concrete, packed boxes, planted flowers, etc. etc. the list goes on. Some items came up during the inspection, David took the punch-list and took care of things. Throughout the process David was professional, exceptionally helpful, served with a smile and offered good jokes to help lighten the mood. If our plans take us back to the Boston or Greater Boston Area we will definitely enlist David's services again.

06/04/2018 - Nancy Kelly - Sold a Single Family home in 2018 in Arlington, MA.

I highly recommend Dave when buying or selling a house, especially in Arlington MA. Dave has years of experience in the ever-changing housing market and is familiar with the uniqueness of Arlington's many neighborhoods. He knows the history and culture of the town and is personally involved in the community. I followed his suggestions to prepare the home for selling and he personally spent many hours painting, helping with clean up and floors. The listing price was right on and we got multiple offers the same week. Dave took care of every detail from start to finish and made this a stress-free process. In the end, the perfect sale is when the buyer and seller are both satisfied and I thank Dave for making that happen.

The sale of our home could not have gone any better. Open house weekend was mobbed. The marketing handout and website info. was 1st class. Dave's knowledge of the local market was right on in terms of pricing and length of time from listing to passing papers.

08/14/2016 - Carla Fontaine - Sold a Single Family home in 2016 in Arlington, MA.

Dave was an incredibly hard working, knowledgeable, and thoughtful partner with us as we sold our home in Arlington. We met Dave when he was selling a home on our street and when we visited that open house it was clear Dave was a serious Real Estate Professional - the print materials were high quality and appealing, the home was staged perfectly, he had a deep knowledge of the home and the area, and he was friendly and professional with all who visited. When we invited Dave to look at our home as we considered selling, he brought a thorough study of comparable homes, trends over time, the real results of his sales over the past five years, and lots of background information on making our home appealing to buyers. We decided to go with Dave to represent us to sell our house - and are we glad we did! Dave was honest about the cosmetic changes that were needed to make our house attractive to buyers, nothing major, just clear out the clutter, spackle and paint, clean and shine. He not only told us what needed to be done, he actually rolled up his sleeves and helped us on several evenings with some of these tasks. Never, ever have I heard of a Real Estate Professional who was so invested in supporting and helping a client. As the house went to market his communication was very clear, his assessment of the offers was sound and thorough, and he handled large and small tasks that needed to get done to keep things moving forward. All our hard work paid off, as the house sold in days and for above asking. I don't believe this would have moved as fast or sold for what it sold for without Dave's guidance and assistance. He was, in a simple phrase, a dream realtor - the one you hope you'll work with when you're selling your home. He exists, and his name is Dave Ledwig

10/02/2017 - Lori W. - Sold a Condo home in 2017 in Lexington, MA.

Dave was outstanding. I run the risk of sounding like this is a made-up review (commercial) by expressing my experience and reactions. Dave is very knowledgeable, researches everything, chases all the nits to be sure I was fully informed and the process would go smoothy. However he is 100% honest, priced my property very reasonably and fairly and continually informed me of any negatives. Beyond that, he invested himself totally in insuring my property was the most desirable and in good repair as possible; throughout the process, he extended himself as though it was his personal property that was on the market rather than mine. He is a gem as a professional and a wonderful person.

Dave Ledwig was highly recommended by one of our good friends when we decided to buy a condo in Boston. Dave is a very knowledgeable realtor. He is hardworking, organized and very patient. Throughout our home search, Dave showed and taught us what to look for such as building structure, neighborhood, and the bureaucracy involved with the property. We couldn't be happier with our new place. Thank you so much Dave. You have our deepest gratitude.

Hearing that we started looking for a house last fall, a coworker told me: I have a real estate agent for you. That real estate agent was Dave Ledwig. Words cannot convey just how fortunate we are to have worked with Dave. Simply put, he is everything you would want in a real estate agent, and absolutely more than you would expect. Dave is very knowledgeable about the local markets, knowing the level of traffic, if people use the street as a cut-through (this was important to us in our search), potential for flooding or water in the basement, etc. Dave is also extremely patient with clients...and their kids. We know this because we were going to open houses with a very active 3-year-old boy. Dave was part agent and part baby sitter on some occasions, but went through it all with a professional attitude, a genuine smile, and unwavering honesty. Dave is incredibly knowledgeable about all aspects of the real estate business and earned our total trust. We never felt like he was pushing us in one direction or another or holding anything back. Working with him was a genuine pleasure. We miss going to the open houses with him. He is also incredibly efficient and totally committed to his clients. With Dave's help, we bought a single-family house earlier this summer, and just love it. It's a perfect house for our family, on a quiet street, with a nice backyard, and in a great neighborhood. We would not be living in this house now if it weren't for Dave. He has our undying gratitude. If we ever decide to sell this house (which we hope won't happen for another 25 years), we will only go with him. Katya and Kurt Heldwein

10/21/2011 - Kathryn E. - Bought and sold a home in 2009 in Arlington Heights, Arlington, MA Dave is by far the best real estate agent I have ever worked with - even better than my highest expectations. He is professional, always available when you need him, extremely knowledgeable, honest, an expert negotiator, and a very nice person. Dave helped my husband and I sell our home in 2009. It sold on the very first day it was listed - for over the asking price! Credit goes to Dave for walking us through the house and helping us arrange it so it show well. He even lent us 3 of his own lamps. Dave also helped us buy our new home. I don't know how he did it, but we ended up buying the house for the exact amount we told him we could afford -- which was $85,000 less than the original asking price. In our book, Dave almost walks on water!
