Rev. Clarence Eziokwu Washington President/Founder and CEO

Rev. Clarence Eziokwu Washington, a Viet Nam Veteran, received his training in Telecommunication and Information Technology from the University of California (UCLA). His talent has allowed him to work both National and International. He retired from Pacific Bell as a Network Engineer Manager after 27 years.

Internationally, he worked as the West Coast Senior Engineer for Tele Media International headquarter in Rome Italy for 9 years, and shifted to be a Business Solution Engineer for the Society of International telecommunications and Aeronautics in Geneva for 2 years.

Rev. Washington was a principal and part business owner of CS3 Computing Services Support & Solutions, also Senior Engineer for EMLAC Communications. He is currently the Co-owner and Vice President of the WE CAN Foundation a supplemental educational service provider. The foundation was established in 1995 for the sole purpose of educating minorities in our inner-city about computer technology and the internet.

Today the foundation is engaged in the effort to increase the academic performance of the students in 122 school districts, from San Diego to San Francisco. The organization sponsors various program to engage and encourage the children in the community to participate in critical thinking. The We CAN Foundation hosted the first Blues Festival in the historical Black Town of Allensworth to raise Scholarship funds for High School students. This past July the organization promoted and produced the second Global Cultural Family Celebration in the Historical Town of Allensworth. This successful effort has resulted in the production of the 2013 Allensworth Global Cultural Ancestral Celebration, honoring global ancestors from all communities.
